Narrative Apparatus Ideology A Film Theory Reader:

   Narrative, Apparatus, Ideology Philip Rosen,1986 Anthology of film theory   Narrative, Apparatus, Ideology Philip Rosen,1986 This book includes many seminal articles by film scholars such as Christian Metz Jean Louis Baudry Stephen Heath Peter Wollen Laura Mulvey and Noe l Burch Also included are articles by the era s leading cultural thinkers Roland Barthes Julia Kristeva and Jean Francois Lyotard to name a few   Peter Greenaway's Postmodern / Poststructuralist Cinema Paula Willoquet-Maricondi,Mary Alemany-Galway,2008-07-17 Since the 1960s British multi media artist Peter Greenaway has shocked and intrigued audiences with his avant garde approach to filmmaking and other artistic ventures From early experimental films to provocative features Greenaway has deployed strategies associated with structuralist cinema only to challenge or critique the very limits of that cinema and of film in general In this collection of essays scholars from a variety of disciplines explore various postmodern and poststructuralist aspects of Greenaway s films starting with his early shorts and delving into his feature length works including The Draughtman s Contract The Belly of an Architect A Zed and Two Noughts The Cook the Thief His Wife and Her Lover The Baby of M con and The Pillow Book Other artistic productions including his paintings and installations are also discussed These essays examine the filmmaker s position within British and avant garde cinema and his interest in constructing and deconstructing representational systems In the years since the first edition of this book Greenaway has enjoyed continued success in creating hybridized media projects for the stage and screen as evidenced by additional essays for this revised edition A new chapter addresses how Dutch political events and Dutch art have been crucial in shaping Greenaway s aesthetic focusing on The Draughtsman s Contract the 1991 opera Writing to Vermeer and Nightwatching the audio visual installation and 2007 film of the same name which were inspired by Rembrandt s Night Watch Also new to this collection is an essay that examines Greenaway s most ambitious endeavor to date The Tulse Luper Suitcases which exists as four feature films multiple websites an online game several books and installations and a number of theatrical events Peter Greenaway s Postmodern Poststructuralist Cinema Revised Edition explores the cultural historical and philosophical implication   Love Rules Mark Garrett Cooper,2003   Bigger Than Life Mary Ann Doane,2021-10-18 In Bigger Than Life Mary Ann Doane examines how the scalar operations of cinema especially those of the close up disturb and reconfigure the spectator s sense of place space and orientation Doane traces the history of scalar transformations from early cinema to the contemporary use of digital technology In the early years of cinema audiences regarded the monumental close up particularly of the face as grotesque and often horrifying even as it sought to expose a character s interiority through its magnification of detail and expression Today large scale technologies such as IMAX and surround sound strive to dissolve the cinematic frame and invade the spectator s space immersing them in image and sound The notion of immersion Doane contends is symptomatic of a crisis of location in technologically mediated space and a reconceptualization of position scale and distance In this way cinematic scale and its modes of spatialization and despatialization have shaped the modern subject interpolating them into the incessant expansion of commodification

Technics Nicholas Baer,Annie Oever,2025-10-01 Featuring 28 leading international media scholars Technics rethinks technology for the contemporary digital era with cutting edge theoretical historiographical and methodological interventions The volume s contributors explore the ideas of Walter Benjamin Ursula Le Guin Bernhard Siegert Gilbert Simondon and Sylvia Wynter in conjunction with urgent questions concerning algorithmic media digital infrastructures generative AI and geoengineering An expansive collection of writings on media technologies in the digital age Technics is an essential resource for students and scholars of film and media studies digital humanities science and technology studies and the philosophy of technology The Exploding Eye Wheeler Winston Dixon,1997-10-30 The Exploding Eye explores the work of lesser known American experimental filmmakers whose work has been excluded from the dominant film canon Although the works of such artists as Michael Snow Stan Brakhage Bruce Conner Robert Nelson and Maya Deren are well known to the contemporary scholar of independent cinema there is an entire body of work created in the American experimental cinema that has been overlooked work of considerable beauty and influence that was enthusiastically received when first released and that is still available for viewing today awaiting long overdue rediscovery Featuring more than seventy rare stills and complete information on the films and filmmakers covered The Exploding Eye offers a fresh vision of American experimental film for critics scholars and the general reader Cinema and Development in West Africa James E. Genova,2013-09-25 Illuminates the enduring importance of political and economic dynamics not yet fully explored in the study of African cinema Africa Cinema and Development in West Africa shows how the film industry in Francophone West African countries played an important role in executing strategies of nation building during the transition from French rule to the early postcolonial period James E Genova sees the construction of African identities and economic development as the major themes in the political literature and cultural production of the time Focusing on film both as industry and aesthetic genre he demonstrates its unique place in economic development and provides a comprehensive history of filmmaking in the region during the transition from colonies to sovereign states News Parade Joseph Clark,2020-05-19 A fascinating look at the United States conflicted relationship with news and the media through the lens of the newsreel When weekly newsreels launched in the early twentieth century they offered the U S public the first weekly record of events that symbolized indisputable evidence of the news In News Parade Joseph Clark examines the history of the newsreel and how it changed the way Americans saw the world He combines an examination of the newsreel s methods of production distribution and reception with an analysis of its representational strategies to understand the newsreel s place in the history of twentieth century American culture and film history Clark focuses on the sound newsreel of the 1930s and 1940s arguing that it represents a crucial moment in the development of a spectacular society where media representations of reality became more fully integrated into commodity culture Using several case studies including the newsreel s coverage of Charles Lindbergh s transatlantic flight and the Sino Japanese War News Parade shows how news film transformed the relationship between its audience and current events as well as the social and political consequences of these changes It pays particular attention to how discourses of race and gender worked together with the rhetoric of speed mobility and authority to establish the power and privilege of newsreel spectatorship In the age of fake news and the profound changes to journalism brought on by the internet News Parade demonstrates how new technologies and media reshaped the American public s relationship with the news in the 1930s a history that can help us to better understand the transformations happening today The Journal of Psychohistory ,1992 Screenplay Geoff King,Tanya Krzywinska,2002 Hollywood film franchises are routinely translated into games and some game titles make the move onto the big screen This collection investigates the interface between cinema and games console or PC Cinema dreams Winfried Pauleit,2009 Caligari's Heirs Steffen Hantke,2007 Most critical work on the horror film in Germany has been devoted to the period of the Weimar Republic and the classics it has produced including Robert Wiene s The Cabinet of Dr Caligari 1920 and F W Murnau s Nosferatu 1922 Postwar German horror film however has received little critical attention Caligari s Heirs The German Cinema of Fear after 1945 is a collection of essays that corrects this oversight by providing intelligent critical analyses of a variety of German horror films from the early postwar years to the present day Following an introduction that discusses the development of critical discourse on postwar German horror film these essays focus on four particular aspects of the genre the immediate postwar years and the long shadow of Weimar cinema that falls over them the dialogue between the German Autorenfilm and horror cinema the influence of commercial American cinema on German horror films and contemporary splatter films that have received more critical attention than any other postwar German horror films To round out the picture of this genre in the context of a specific national tradition the book also includes three interviews with contemporary German horror film directors working in both cinema and television Though the book takes on a wide field of discussion German horror film over a period of roughly fifty years it does so by providing case studies The essays in this collection discuss either an individual film or director or they take on larger historical issues from the discussion of the Nazi past in the postwar years to the heavy toll of German reunification In its broad approach Caligari s Heirs has something to offer to three distinct audiences the horror film fan the reader interested in German cinema in general and the reader interested in discovering a national culture through its popular culture From Antz To Titanic Martin Barker,Thomas Austin,2000-06-20 A jargon free and accessible introduction to film analysis looking at popular Hollywood films in various genres The Pinter Review ,1993 Re Framing Violence Kjel Wayne Johnson,2006 The Oriental Obscene Sylvia Shin Huey Chong,2004 Moving Images, Culture, and the Mind Ib Bondebjerg,2000 Since the rise of cinema in 1896 moving images have been of increased importance in the construction of culture and society and for the ways in which we interact with reality and with each other With the coming of television on a global mass scale in the 1960 s and the birth of computers and the information society in the 1980 s we are right now in an expanding and changing culture highly influenced by visual media   Remade in Hollywood Kenneth Chan,2009 The subjects covered in this volume include the diasporic cinematic gaze on the 1997 Hong Kong handover Hollywood s response to the Hong Kong handover the global return of the Wuxia pian and much more
