Never In Anger Portrait Of An Eskimo Family:

Never in Anger Jean L. Briggs, 1970 Describes emotional patterning of the Utkuhikhalingmiut a small group of Eskimos who live at the mouth of the Back River in the context of their life as seen as lived by the author Based on field work conducted between June 1963 and March 1965

Never in Anger; Portrait of an Eskimo Family. Jean L. Briggs Jean L. Briggs, 1970

Hunt, Gather, Parent Michaeleen Doucleff, 2022-03-08 An NPR Science Desk correspondent challenges the misleading child rearing practices commonly recommended to parents outlining alternatives grounded in international ancestral traditions that are being used effectively throughout the modern world In Hunt Gather Parent Doucleff sets out with her three year old daughter in tow to learn and practice parenting strategies from families in three of the world s most venerable communities Maya families in Mexico Inuit families above the Arctic Circle and Hadzabe families in Tanzania She sees that these cultures don t have the same problems with children that Western parents do Most strikingly parents build a relationship with young children that is vastly different from the one many Western parents develop it s built on cooperation instead of control trust instead of fear and personalized needs instead of standardized development milestones

The History of Emotions Jan Plamper, 2015-01-22 The history of emotions is one of the fastest growing fields in current historical debate and this is the first book length introduction to the field synthesizing the current research and offering direction for future study The History of Emotions is organized around the debate between social constructivist and universalist theories of emotion that has shaped most emotions research in a variety of disciplines for more than a hundred years social constructivists believe that emotions are largely learned and subject to historical change while universalists insist on the timelessness and pan culturalism of emotions In historicizing and problematizing this binary Jan Plamper opens emotions research beyond constructivism and universalism he also maps a vast terrain of thought about feelings in anthropology philosophy sociology linguistics art history political science the life sciences from nineteenth century experimental psychology to the latest affective neuroscience and history from ancient times to the present day

The Postmodern Turn Steven Seidman, 1994-11-25 The Postmodern Turn gathers together in one volume some of the most important statements of the postmodern approach to human studies In addressing postmodern social theory and emphasising the social role of knowledge this book abandons the disciplinary boundaries separating the sciences and the humanities The first collection of its kind it provides the classic essays of authors such as Lyotard Haraway Foucault and Rorty Contributors include well known theorists in the fields of sociology anthropology women s and gay studies philosophy and history

Encounters with Emotions Benno Gammerl, Philipp Nielsen, Margrit Pernau, 2019-06-06 Spanning Europe Asia and the Pacific Encounters with Emotions investigates experiences of face to face transcultural encounters from the seventeenth century to the present and the emotional dynamics that helped to shape them Each of the case studies collected here investigates fascinating historiographical questions that arise from the study of emotion from the strategies people have used to interpret and understand each other's emotions to the roles that emotions have played in obstructing communication across cultural divides Together they explore the cultural aspects of nature as well as the bodily dimensions of nurture and trace the historical trajectories that shape our understandings of current cultural boundaries and effects of globalization

Encyclopedia of Anthropology H. James Birx, 2006 Focuses on physical social and applied anthropology archaeology linguistics and symbolic communication Topics include hominid evolution primate behaviour genetics ancient civilizations cross cultural studies and social theories Native North Americans Molly Raymond Mignon, Daniel L. Religious Emotions Willem Lemmens, Walter van Herck, 2008 In recent decades contemporary Anglo American philosophy has seen a boom in publications on the subject of the emotions TM Most publications focus on the cognitive value of emotions and on their moral significance The role which emotions play in religion however has so far received little attention In this volume a number of scholars present their research on religious emotions TM Is there a category of religious emotions TM What is so distinctive about them Was there really a Christian inspired repression of the emotions Or did Christianity also made use of the human emotional potential How is the relation between religion and emotions conditioned by the process of secularisation How and why did a shift from the concept of passion TM to that of emotion TM occur from the eighteenth century on This collection includes systematical treatments as well as historical approaches of these issues The last part gives some paradigmatical cases of religious emotions like emptiness and oceanic feeling In the study of what constitutes a human being neither religion nor emotion can be neglected The reader is invited to reflect on their interaction

Cultural Anthropology Richley H. Crapo, 1996 How we communicate appreciate beauty relate to the environment even how we date are reflections of our culture Cultures and therefore ways of life vary tremendously throughout the world Through this comprehensive introduction to the field of anthropology you will come to share the author's appreciation for the cultural diversity that existed in the past and continues today despite the effects of global communication Interesting narrative examples and excerpts from traditional ethnographies vividly illustrate many major concepts in each chapter P 4 of cover CROW Reports, 1980 Early Mother-child Emotion Talk in Mexican-descent Families Christi A. Cervantes, 1998 Journal of Individual Psychology, 1973 Northern Affairs Bulletin, 1975 Nord, 1975 Social Space Ole Grøn, Ericka Engelstad, Inge Lindblom, 1991 Tragic Manhood and Democracy David A. J. Richards, 2004 What is tragedy This work argues that it is at once art and science an absorbing art and precisely observed empirical inquiry into human psychology whose subject matter is the dilemma of manhood under democracy The author expands discussion of the idea of the tragic to include music drama in general and the operas of Verdi in particular and explores the indispensable contribution of tragedy to an understanding of personal and political psychology through discussion of the political theory of structural injustice resting on the suppression of voice underlying evils like racism sexism and homophobia a developmental psychology of gender drawing on the work of Carol Gilligan the Harvard Project on Women s Psychology Boy s Development and the Culture of Manhood and an interpretation of tragic art including the expressive role of music in it Exploration of the tragic impact of patriarchy on democratic voice is at the heart of the power and appeal of Verdi s innovations in musical voice At its core is a complex psychic geography of patriarchal practices imposed on personal and political relationships parents to children siblings to one another and adult men and women Such practices fundamental to the family politics and religion enforce demands by forms of physical and psychological violence directed by men and women at anyone who deviates from its demands Verdi s tragic musical drama speaks of an emotional loss that literally cannot under patriarchy be spoken namely what the author calls the tragedy of patriarchy a divided psychology that lives in the tension between patriarchal practices and democratic principles and between the psychological demands of patriarchy and democratic manhood

Full Circle John Steckley, Bryan David Cummins, 2001 This book examines both traditional and contemporary aboriginal societies in Canada reflecting the diversity of First Nation s voices Through discussions of aboriginal languages oral tradition writers and individuals the content touches on several issues such as colonialism education health justice and social action

Raven's Children Richard Adams Carey, 1992 Book of reportage on the contemporary life and culture of the Yupik Eskimo residents of Kongiganak southwest Alaska and of the conflicts between traditional knowledge and lifestyles and the modern world

Kitchen-table Society Marianne Gullestad, 1984 Through two years of anthropological fieldwork in the suburbs of Bergen Norway s second largest city the author has listened carefully to the conversations of young working class women In this intimate study she examines how the lives of these women are shaped what dignity and self respect means to them and how they define their identities as women She discusses such topics as the rising rate of divorce women s culture and how these women play a crucial role in creating and maintaining a cultural life style for their families
