Conflict and Poverty in Africa Ebenezer Durojaye, Gladys Mirugi-Mukundi, John-Mark Iyi, Usang Maria Assim, 2025-02-17 The contributors to this book examine the conceptual issues relating to the link between conflict and poverty as well as presenting case studies of countries often regarded as hot spots for conflict in Africa They also explore the roles of regional and sub regional bodies and institutions in addressing the causes of poverty and mitigating the impacts of conflict on vulnerable and marginalized groups Africa is often regarded as the epicentre of conflicts worldwide Virtually every part of the continent is currently engulfed in one form of conflict or another Beyond the loss of life conflicts have brought untold hardship to millions and have derailed social and economic development on the continent Written by African academics this book is divided into three sections the first of which discusses the factors that fuel conflicts and the nature and impacts of conflicts on vulnerable groups The second section comprises case studies of South Sudan Central African Republic Nigeria Ethiopia South Africa Uganda and Cameroon These countries are representative of the sub regional dynamics of Africa west east central and south reflecting the diversity of the continent The final section examines the role of key institutions and bodies in Africa in mitigating the impact of conflict on the socioeconomic lives of the people in the region Bodies discussed include the African Union Economic Community of West African States Southern African Development Community and the East African Community The book will be an invaluable resource for researchers academics and policymakers working in the areas of law political science human rights peace studies development studies and African studies

Wildlife Trade and Animal Victimization Ragnhild Aslaug Sollund, 2025-03-31 This book examines the trade in nonhuman animals of endangered wild species Wildlife trafficking is after loss of habitat the biggest threat to many animal species and biodiversity This book draws on extensive empirical data from Norway to highlight the parallel legal and illegal markets the motivation of traders animal victimization the weaknesses of existing regulatory frameworks and the difficulties of legal enforcement As a long time signatory of the Convention on International Trade in Endangered Species of Wild Fauna and Flora and a rich consumer country Norway provides the perfect case for investigating the consequences of legalising or banning wildlife trade The work applies a green non-speciesist theoretical perspective to analyse empirical data covering approximately 350 cases as well as qualitative interviews with law enforcement agencies and confiscation reports from customs The book will be an essential resource for researchers and academics in green criminology global criminology environmental law and environmental studies It will also be of value to professionals working in wildlife and animal welfare policies and enforcement such as governmental and non-governmental organizations

Re-Create Ron Luce,2010-12-27 An intense battle is raging for the hearts and minds of America's 33 million teenagers the largest generation of teens in U S history These teens have an enemy He has crafted an offensive strategy stealth tactics sophisticated reconnaissance and subtle propaganda You only have to turn on your TV talk to your teen's friends go to the movies or listen to the radio to catch a glimpse of his destructive campaign Ron Luce is sounding the battle cry calling parents and Christian leaders to wake up to the war against America's teens Are you willing to reject quiet Christianity and make a world shaking difference by dreaming new dreams to recreate our culture Now is the time to use your God-given creativity and claim this generation for Christ because a generation that the world cannot change is a generation that can change the world
