Socio-Economic Human Rights in Essential Public Services Provision Marlies Hesselman,Antenor Hallo de Wolf,Brigit Toebes,2016-11-10 There is a clear overlap between securing socio economic human rights for all persons and arranging adequate access to essential public services across society Both are necessary to realise thriving inclusive societies with adequate living standards for all based on human dignity This edited volume brings together the two topics for the first time In particular it identifies the common challenges for essential public services provision and socio economic human rights realisation and it explores how socio economic rights law can be harnessed to reinforce better access to services An important aim of this book is to understand how international socio economic human rights law and guideposts can be used and strengthened to improve access to services and assess socio economic legal and policy decisions The volume includes contributions from different continents on a range of different services and engages with the realities of different regulatory settings After an introduction that sets out the most important challenges for universal access to services including sufficient resources mobilisation private actor involvement and regulation or the need for improved checks and balances the book goes on to discuss current issues in services provision and socio economic rights as well as explores the place and role of private business actors in the provision of services In particular it assesses how the responsibility and accountability of such actors for human rights can be improved The final part of the book narrows in on the under explored human rights concepts of participation and accountability as essential prerequisites for better checks and balances Overall this volume presents a unique and powerful illustration of how socio economic human rights law supports improved access to essential public services for all

Claims for Secession and Federalism Alberto López-Basaguren, Leire Escajedo San-Epifanio, 2019-01-05 This volume incorporating the work of scholars from various parts of the globe taps the wisdom of the Westphalian and post Westphalian world on the use of federalism and secession as tools for managing regional conflicts The debate has rarely been more important than it is right now especially in light of recent events in Catalonia Scotland Qu bec and the Sudan all unique political contexts raising similar questions about how best to balance competing claims for autonomy interdependence political voice and exit Exploring how various nations have encountered comparable conflicts some more and some less successfully the book broadens the perspectives of scholars government officials and citizens struggling to resolve sovereignty conflicts with a full appreciation of the underlying principles they represent

Neoliberalism 2.0: Regulating and Financing Globalizing Markets L. Nijs, 2016-01-26 In today s increasingly globalized environment many economic fundamentals need to be reconsidered in order to regain stability in the global marketplace One such consideration is the failing dynamics of the international tax infrastructure Neoliberalism 2 0 brings a 21st century assessment of the Pigovian taxes considering a completely new calibration of the international tax systems inspired by the historically developed Pigovian tax model The book considers the impact neoliberalism had and will have on regulatory infrastructure democracy in an era of globalization and reduced legitimation of the national state The Pigovian model brings home the often forgotten relationship between taxation as a part of the regulatory sphere macro economics and the political philosophical context in which law and economics emerge The model also takes into account the phenomena of globalization and financialization and is tested using the financial sector as an example This book addresses the many challenges a Pigovian shift would imply for the sovereign and its national economies Neoliberalism 2 0 demonstrates the ability to design a paradigm changing alternative to the current tax infrastructure while taking into account a low economic growth environment of the future the implications of globalization and the changing relationship between citizens and their state
