Geronimo's Kids Robert S. Ove, H. Henrietta Stockel, 1997 Through the stories of the elders he also learned how this way of life had changed since their capture as many of the traditional ways of the Chiricahuas were altered or lost in the ensuing decades after Geronimo's people surrendered to the U S Army in 1886 Decades of incarceration followed first in Florida then in Alabama and finally in Oklahoma More than half died in hot humid prison camps because the Chiricahuas had no inborn resistance to the virulent diseases brought to North America by Europeans Then in 1913 with fewer than three hundred left the Chiricahuas were released and received land allotments near their last prison site Fort Sill or on the Mescalero Apache Reservation where Ove arrived thirty five years later

BOOK JACKET

Selfless Persons Steven Collins, 1982 This book seeks to explain carefully and sympathetically the Buddhist doctrine of anatta not self which denies the existence of any self soul or enduring essence in human beings The author relates this doctrine to its cultural and historical context particularly to its Brahmanical background and shows how the Theravada Buddhist tradition has constructed a philosophical and psychological account of personal identity and continuity on the apparently impossible basis of the denial of self

Community Association Law Wayne S. Hyatt, Susan F. French, 2008 This second edition of the pioneering Hyatt and French Community Association Law coursebook is an ideal vehicle for introducing students to this increasingly important subject From housing just 2 million Americans in 1970 common interest communities had grown to house 57 million or 19% of the American population by 2006 Community associations which manage these communities bear similarities to not for profit corporations municipal governments and trusts but are different The evolving body of community association law draws from all these fields but reflects the unique character and needs of common interest communities Reflecting the expertise of its authors the book combines academic rigor and practical knowledge Primary materials include important cases statutes including proposed revisions to UCIOA the Restatement Third of Property Servitudes and references to the growing body of literature on gated communities co housing developments private governments and other property regimes used to avoid the tragedy of the commons in groups that hold common property

Morals in Evolution Leonard Trelawney Hobhouse,1906 Morals in Evolution Leonard Trelawny Hobhouse,1906 The Journal of Education ,1884 Journal of Education and School World ,1884 A Handbook on Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians Paul Ellingworth,Howard Hatton,1994 This handbook like others in this series concentrates on exegetical matters that are of prime importance for translators and it attempts to indicate possible solutions for translational problems that may arise because of language or culture In this respect the Handbook attempts to deal with the full range of information important to translators However the authors do not attempt to provide help that other theologians and scholars may be seeking but which is not directly useful for the task of translating It is assumed that such information is available elsewhere
