Mobilizing Hope, Fighting for Change Anthony R. Pahnke, 2025-11 Mobilizing Hope Fighting for Change analyzes an unusual development in social movement studies and food politics more generally the formation of an interracial alliance of farmers and farm workers who together demand transformative changes to U S agriculture by calling for food sovereignty Such an alliance as Anthony R Pahnke shows is unusual given how social movement alliances in the United States particularly those related to agrarian issues have historically been deeply divided by race and occupation Pahnke s study offers a novel theory for social movement alliance formation focusing especially on the dynamics of learning He documents how since the 1980s there have been unprecedented openings for people to work together due to the rise of transnational activist networks changes in the international political economy and evolving forms of state authority Foregrounding the voices of activists Mobilizing Hope Fighting for Change compares the trajectories of four U S based movements over time the Mvskoke Food Sovereignty Initiative based in Oklahoma the Family Farm Defenders of Wisconsin the Farmworker Association of Florida and the Mississippi Association of Cooperatives documenting how they have united in demanding food sovereignty while remaining distinct from one another

Ethnic Renewal in Philadelphia's Chinatown Kathryn Wilson,2015-04-10 Philadelphia s Chinatown like many urban chinatowns began in the late nineteenth century as a refuge for immigrant laborers and merchants in which to form a community to raise families and conduct business But this enclave for expression identity and community is also the embodiment of historical legacies and personal and collective memories In Ethnic Renewal in Philadelphia s Chinatown Kathryn Wilson charts the unique history of this neighborhood After 1945 a new generation of families began to shape Chinatown s future As plans for urban renewal ranging from a cross town expressway and commuter rail in the 1960s to a downtown baseball stadium in 2000 were proposed and developed Save Chinatown activists rose up and fought for social justice Wilson chronicles the community s efforts to save and renew itself through urban planning territorial claims and culturally specific rebuilding She shows how these efforts led to Chinatown s growth and its continued ability to serve as a living community for subsequent waves of new immigration

Hold the Salt: Dietary Sodium's Effect on Cardiovascular and Kidney Diseases Ashley Pitzer Mutchler,Marcelo Perim Baldo,Youngseung Lee,Maria Do Carmo Serrano,2025-01-31 Sodium plays a pivotal role in cardiovascular and kidney health and disease with its balance being crucial for maintaining overall health While most guidelines recommend a daily intake of less than 2 grams of sodium most individuals consume nearly twice that amount in a day On average more than 70% of dietary sodium comes from processed foods and eating out at restaurants It is well known that the sodium status of the body is directly correlated to systolic blood pressure Excessive sodium intake can lead to hypertension which is a major public health issue due to the profound risk of developing cardiovascular and kidney diseases The kidneys act as a key regulator of sodium levels in the body adjusting its reabsorption and excretion to maintain a delicate balance Dysfunction in the renal handling of sodium can contribute to various kidney disorders Therefore a careful and balanced approach to sodium consumption is essential to support optimal cardiovascular and kidney function reducing the risk of related health complications

The Covid Consensus (Updated) Toby Green,Thomas Fazi,2023-01-05 During the first years of the pandemic the political mainstream agreed that following the science with hard lockdowns and vaccine mandates was the best way to preserve life But social science reveals the true human cost of this policy The Covid Consensus provides an internationalist left perspective on the world s Covid 19 response which has had devastating consequences for democratic rights and the poor worldwide As the fortunes of the richest soared nationwide shutdowns devastated small businesses the working classes and the Global South s informal economies Gender based violence surged and the mental health of young people was severely compromised

Meanwhile unprecedented health restrictions prevented participation in daily life without proof of vaccination Toby Green and Thomas Fazi argue that these policies grossly exacerbated existing trends of inequality mediatisation and surveillance with grave implications for the future Rich in human detail The Covid Consensus tackles head on the refusal of the global political class and mainstream media to report the true extent of the erosion of democratic processes and the socioeconomic assault on the poor As the world emerges from the pandemic to confront new modes of monitoring and control this left wing reappraisal of global Covid policies exposes the injustices and political failings that have produced the biggest crisis since the Second World War
