Fly Away Peter:

Fly Away Peter David Malouf, 1982 In this shimmering work of imagination one of Australia's most honored writers conjures a single still moment on the edge of the 20th century in which two unlikely people share a friendship When Ashley Crowther returns to Australia to manage his father's property he discovers a timeless landscape of kingfishers and ibises he also meets Jim Saddler the young woodsman who becomes Ashley's guide to his inheritance Fly Away Peter Frank Dickens, 1970 A giraffe whose neck is too short and a bird who can't fly play hide and seek with startling results Fly Away Peter Stevie Morgan, 1999 Fly Away Peter Denys Rhodes, 1952 Flyaway Desmond Bagley, 2017-07-13 Action thriller by the classic adventure writer about security consultant Max Stafford set in the Sahara HSC Standard English Barry Spurr, Lloyd Cameron, 2009 This guide contains comprehensive summary and discussion of all 44 prescribed texts in the HSC Standard English course plus a list of key issues to consider in each chapter related to the relevant syllabus area helpful advice on how to read different types of texts plot outlines character discussion and interpretations The Pain of Unbelonging Sheila Collingwood-Whittick, 2007 Beyond the obvious and enduring socio-economic ravages it unleashed on indigenous cultures white settler colonization in Australasia also inflicted profound damage on the collective psyche of both of the communities that inhabited the contested space of the colonial world The acute sense of alienation that colonization initially provoked in the colonized and colonizing populations of Australia and New Zealand has recent studies indicate developed into an endemic existential pathology Evidence of the psychological fallout from the trauma of geographical deracination cultural disorientation and ontological destabilization can be found not only in the state of anomie and self-destructive patterns of behaviour that now characterize the lives of indigenous Australian and Maori peoples but also in the perpetually faltering identity discourse and cultural rootlessness of the present descendants of the countries Anglo-Celtic settlers It is with the literary expression of this persistent condition of alienation that the essays gathered in the present volume are concerned Covering a heterogeneous selection of contemporary Australasian literature what these critical studies convincingly demonstrate is that more than two hundred years after the process of colonisation was set in motion the experience that Germaine Greer has dubbed the pain of unbelonging continues unabated constituting a dominant thematic concern in the writing produced today by Australian and New Zealand authors Missions of Interdependence, 2021-11-01 At the beginning of the twenty-first century it is necessary to combine into a productive programme the striving for individual emancipation and the social practice of humanism in order to help the world survive both the ancient pitfalls of particularist terrorism and the levelling tendencies of cultural indifference engendered by the renewed imperialist arrogance of hegemonial global capital In this book thirty-five scholars address and negotiate in a spirit of learning and understanding an exemplary variety of intercultural splits and fissures that have opened up in the English-speaking world Their methodology can be seen to constitute a seminal field of intellectual signposts They point out ways and means of responsibly assessing colonial predicaments and postcolonial developments in six regions shaped in the past by the British Empire and still associated today through their allegiance to the idea of a Commonwealth of Nations They show how a new ethic of literary self assertion interpretative mediation and critical responsiveness can remove the deeply ingrained prejudices silences and taboos established by discrimination against race class and gender
