The Courage To Create Rollo May Pdf:

Learning That Matters Susan Davis, 2016-03-22 This book presents research and practice which revitalises Heathcote's Rolling Role an innovative trans disciplinary model which connects the work of multiple classes to engage in collaborative imaginative work The original model was developed by legendary teacher Dorothy Heathcote an educational innovator who gained international fame for her transformational work centred on dramatic framing to activate meaningful and important learning She developed models that encouraged teachers to curate powerful learning experiences through careful planning framing enactment and reflection Teacher in Role and Mantle of the Expert are the most well known of her strategies approaches where the teacher exercises high selectivity in a range of mediational tools and means so as to empower students as agents with the power to act While the Rolling Role model is less well known Heathcote herself believed that it had great potential to be realised through using websites and digital technologies In the wake of her passing and ongoing examinations of her legacy a practical exploration was initiated to reconceptualise the Rolling Role model through the use of digital platforms The resulting project The Water Reckoning was an international project which engaged students in exploring ideas related to climate change water based catastrophe and human resilience Further analysis and archival research have informed a deeper understanding of key principles for implementing Rolling Role and its potential for global collaboration and learning This work has included close analysis of a set of 16 videotapes Heathcote created as a set of consultations for teachers The book therefore collects together for the first time accounts regarding the historical development of the Rolling Role system examples of its use and reflections on its application through the use of digital technologies Rolling Role has the potential to be applied in a wide range of educational contexts with its focus on engaged learning and learning that matters

Creativity Policy, Partnerships and Practice in Education Kim Sneyd, Pat Thomson, Anne Harris, 2018-10-31 This book examines the gaps in creativity education across the education lifespan and the resulting implications for creative education and economic policy Building on cutting edge international research the editors and contributors explore innovations in interdisciplinary creativities including STEM agendas and definitions science and creativity and organisational creativity amongst other subjects Central to the volume is the idea that good creative educational practice and policy advancement needs to reimagine individual contribution and possibilities whilst resisting standardization it is inherently risky not risk averse Prioritising creative partnerships zones of contact practice encounters and creative ecologies signal new modes of participatory engagement Unfortunately while primary schools continue to construct environments conducive to this kind of slow education secondary schools and education policy persistently do not This book argues from diverse viewpoints and methodological perspectives that 21st century creativity education must find a way to advance in a more integrated and less siloed manner in order to respond to pedagogical innovation economic imperatives and creative possibilities and adequately prepare students for creative practice workplaces and publics This innovative volume will appeal to students and scholars of creative practice as well as policy makers and practitioners

Ancient Extravagance Ryan Snider, 2024-10-29 Find the beautiful and come alive We are all frittering away our lives at least according to someone They tell us to be productive and not waste our opportunities In Ancient Extravagance Ryan Snider shows us that life is more than our accomplishments and what we do The key to a life of meaning is developing our spiritual senses which only come awake when we worship with others That might seem like a waste of time but in fact these ancient practices have the power to wake up all parts of our lives not just Sunday morning Snider begins with a recovery of childlike wonder and story reclaiming how prose poetry memory and reflection heal and strengthen the soul Next he turns to melodies our grandmothers taught us examining how they reach into our bones He then reflects on what it means to eat meals with strangers and how a simple act of hospitality can gently inscribe love generosity gratitude and hospitality in our hearts These seemingly insignificant practices are mustard seeds that grow into trees to create shade for the world When we cease simply going to worship and start becoming the worship we will discover the friendships beauty purpose stories and sacred moments that will save us and make us more human Deeply meaningful and delightfully humorous candid yet surprising Ancient Extravagance will connect you with a more beautiful and meaningful life Psyche and Soul in America
