Biopolitics And Memory In Postcolonial Literature And Culture:

Biopolitics and Memory in Postcolonial Literature and Culture Michael R. Griffiths, 2017-05-15 From the Truth and Reconciliation Commission in South Africa to the United Nations Permanent Memorial to the Victims of Slavery and the Transatlantic Slave Trade many worthwhile processes of public memory have been enacted on the national and international levels But how do these extant practices of memory function to precipitate justice and recompense Are there moments when such techniques performances and displays of memory serve to obscure and elide aspects of the history of colonial governmentality This collection addresses these and other questions in essays that take up the varied legacies continuities modes of memorialization and poetics of remaking that attend colonial governmentality in spaces as varied as the Maghreb and the Solomon Islands Highlighting the continued injustices arising from a process whose aftermath is far from settled the contributors examine works by twentieth century authors representing Asia Africa North America Latin America Australia and Europe Imperial practices throughout the world have fomented a veritable culture of memory The essays in this volume show how the legacy of colonialism s attempt to transform the mode of life of colonized peoples has been central to the largely unequal phenomenon of globalization

Biopolitics and Memory in Postcolonial Literature and Culture Michael R. Griffiths, 2016 How do processes of public memory such as the Truth and Reconciliation Commission in South Africa precipitate justice and recompense When do such techniques performances and displays of memory obscure and elide aspects of the history of colonial governmentality This collection addresses these and other questions in essays that take up the varied legacies continuities modes of memorialization and poetics of remaking that attend colonial governmentality in spaces as varied as the Maghreb and the Solomon Islands

Chris Abani Annalisa Oboe, Elisa Bordin, 2022-02-22 This is the first full length book on the work of global Igbo writer Chris Abani The volume dedicates a chapter to each of Abani s fiction books the two novellas Becoming Abigail 2006 and Song for Night 2007 the three novels GraceLand 2004 The Virgin of Flames 2007 and The Secret History of Las Vegas 2014 which are read against the grain of Abani s most important essays and poetical production By combining close readings and more theoretical reflections this volume provides a significant insight for both scholars and students interested in the literature produced by the emerging African voices in the twentieth first century in the debate about human rights and in general in how aesthetics is deeply linked with ethics

Holocaust Memory and Racism in the Postwar World Shirli Gilbert, Avril Alba, 2019-07-08 Traces the history of connections between Holocaust memory and the discourse of anti racism The Holocaust is often invoked as a benchmark for talking about human rights abuses from slavery and apartheid to colonialism ethnic cleansing and genocide Western educators and politicians draw seemingly obvious lessons of tolerance and anti racism from the Nazi past and their work rests on the implicit assumption that Holocaust education and commemoration will expose the dangers of prejudice and promote peaceful coexistence Holocaust Memory and Racism in the Postwar World edited by Shirli Gilbert and Avril Alba challenges the notion that there is an unproblematic connection between Holocaust memory and the discourse of anti racism Through diverse case studies this volume historicizes how the Holocaust has shaped engagement with racism from the 1940s until the present demonstrating that contemporary assumptions are neither obvious nor inevitable Holocaust Memory and Racism in the Postwar World is divided into four sections The first section focuses on encounters between Nazism and racism during and immediately after World War II demonstrating not only that racist discourses and politics persisted in the postwar period but also perhaps more importantly that few people identified links with Nazi racism The second section explores Jewish motivations for participating in anti racist activism and the varying memories of the Holocaust that informed their work The third section historicizes the manifold ways in which the Holocaust has been conceptualized in literary settings exploring efforts to connect the Holocaust and racism in geographically culturally and temporally diverse settings The final section brings the volume into the present focusing on contemporary political causes for which the Holocaust provides a benchmark for racial equality and justice Together the contributions delineate the complex history of Holocaust memory recognize its contingency and provide a foundation from which to evaluate its moral legitimacy and political and social effectiveness Holocaust Memory and Racism in the Postwar World is intended for students and scholars of Holocaust and genocide studies professionals working in museums and heritage organizations and anyone interested in building on their knowledge of the Holocaust and the discourse of racism

The Biopolitics of Development Sandro Mezzadra,Julian Reid,Ranabir Samaddar,2013-12-27 This book offers an original analysis and theorization of the biopolitics of development in the postcolonial present and draws significantly from the later works of Michel Foucault on biopolitics Foucault s works have had a massive influence on postcolonial literatures particularly in political science and international relations and several authors of this book have themselves made significant contributions to that influence While Foucault s thought has been inspirational for understanding colonial biopolitics as well as governmental rationalities concerned with development his works have too often failed to inspire studies of political subjectivity Instead they have been used to stoke the myth of the inevitability of the decline of collective political subjects often describing an increasingly limited horizon of political possibilities and provoking a disenchantment with the political itself in postcolonial works and studies Working against the grain of current Foucauldian scholarship this book underlines the importance of Foucault s work for the capacity to recognize how this degraded view of political subjectivity came about particularly within the framework of the discourses and politics of development and with particular attention to the predicaments of postcolonial peoples It explores how we can use Foucault s ideas to recover the vital capacity to think and act politically at a time when fundamentally human capacities to think know and to act purposively in the world are being pathologized as expressions of the hubris and underdevelopment of postcolonial peoples Why and how it is that life in postcolonial settings has been depoliticized to such dramatic effect The immediacy of these themes will be obvious to anyone living in the South of the world But within the academy they remain heavily under addressed In thinking about what it means to read Michel Foucault today this book tackles some significant questions and problems Not simply that of how to explain the ways in which postcolonial regimes of governance have achieved the debasements of political subjectivity they have nor that of how we might better equip them with the means to suborn the life of postcolonial peoples more fully but that of how such peoples in their subjection to governance can and do resist subvert escape and defy the imposition of modes of governance which seek to remove their lives of those very capacities for resistance subversion flight and defiance      Palimpsests in

Ethnic and Postcolonial Literature and Culture Yiorgos D. Kalogeras, Johanna C. Kardux, Monika Mueller, Jopi Nyman, 2021-01-28 This volume explores ways in which the literary trope of the palimpsest can be applied to ethnic and postcolonial literary and cultural studies Based on contemporary theories of the palimpsest the innovative chapters reveal hidden histories and uncover relationships across disciplines and seemingly unconnected texts The contributors focus on diverse forms of the palimpsest the incarceration of Native Americans in military forts and their response to the elimination of their cultures mnemonic novels that rework the politics and poetics of the Black Atlantic the urban palimpsests of Rio de Janeiro Marseille Johannesburg and Los Angeles that reveal layers of humanity with disparities in origin class religion and chronology and the palimpsestic configurations of mythologies and religions that resist strict cultural distinctions and argue against cultural relativism

Postcolonial Life-writing B. J. Moore-Gilbert, 2009 At a time when concepts of identity and self representation are abundant in both literary and cultural studies Postcolonialism and Life Writing brings together the two increasingly popular and important fields of postcolonial studies and life writing

Postcolonial Memory in the Netherlands Gerlov Engelenhoven, 2025-12 This book is about postcolonial memory in the Netherlands This term refers to conflicts in contemporary society about how the colonial past should be remembered The question is often who has the right or ability to tell their stories and who do not In other words who has a voice and who is silenced As such these conflicts represent a wider tendency in cultural theory and activism to use voice as a metaphor for empowerment and silence as voice's negative counterpart signifying powerlessness And yet there are voices that do not liberate us from but rather subject us to power Meanwhile silence can be powerful it can protect disrupt and reconfigure Throughout this book it will become clear how voice and silence function not as each other's opposites but as each other's continuation and that postcolonial memory is articulated through the interplay of meaningful voices and meaningful silences

Memory and Postcolonial Studies Dirk Göttsche, 2019 This volume explores the synergies and tensions between memory studies and postcolonial studies across literatures and media from Europe Africa and the Americas and intersections with Asia It makes a unique contribution to this growing international and interdisciplinary field by considering an unprecedented range of languages and sources
