Black Medea Teacher S Notes:

Performing Indigenous Identities on the Contemporary Australian Stage Susanne Thurow, 2019-08-21 Over the past 50 years Indigenous Australian theatre practice has emerged as a dynamic site for the discursive reflection of culture and tradition as well as colonial legacies leveraging the power of storytelling to create and advocate contemporary fluid conceptions of Indigeneity Performing Indigenous Identities on the Contemporary Australian Stage offers a window into the history and diversity of this vigorous practice It introduces the reader to cornerstones of Indigenous Australian cultural frameworks and on this backdrop discusses a wealth of plays in light of their responses to contemporary Australian identity politics The in depth readings of two landmark theatre productions Scott Rankin's Namatjira 2010 and Wesley Enoch's Anita Heiss I Am Eora 2012 trace the artists engagement with questions of community consolidation and national reconciliation carefully considering the implications of their propositions for identity work arising from the translation of traditional ontologies into contemporary orientations The analyses of the dramatic texts are incrementally enriched by a dense reflection of the production and reception contexts of the plays providing an expanded framework for the critical consideration of contemporary postcolonial theatre practice that allows for a well founded appreciation of the strengths yet also pointing to the limitations of current representative approaches on the Australian mainstage This study will be of great interest to students and scholars of Postcolonial Literary Performance and Theatre Studies William Greaves Scott

MacDonald, Jacqueline Najuma Stewart, 2021-06-01 William Greaves is one of the most significant and compelling American filmmakers of the past century Best known for his experimental film about its own making Symbiopsychotaxiplasm Take One Greaves was an influential independent documentary filmmaker who produced directed shot and edited more than a hundred films on a variety of social issues and on key African American figures ranging from Muhammad Ali to Ralph Bunche to Ida B Wells A multitalented artist his career also included stints as a songwriter a member of the Actors Studio and during the late 1960s a producer and cohost of Black Journal the first national television show focused on African American culture and politics This volume provides the first comprehensive overview of Greaves's remarkable career It brings together a wide range of material including a mix of incisive essays from critics and scholars Greaves's own writings an extensive meta interview with Greaves conversations with his wife and collaborator Louise Archambault Greaves and his son David and a critical dossier on Symbiopsychotaxiplasm Together they illuminate Greaves's mission to use filmmaking as a tool for transforming the ways African Americans were perceived by others and the ways they saw themselves This landmark book is an essential resource on Greaves's work and his influence on independent cinema and African American culture
