Black White Photography July 2017 Magazine:

Space, Place and Hybridity in the National Imagination Christine Vandamme, André Dodeman, 2021-10-26 This volume explores space place and hybridity in today's multicultural societies with a strong emphasis on the role of art and spatial representations in order to map out the complexity of modern nations and celebrate the creative powers of their highly dynamic communities and cultures It considers how the very idea of the nation has evolved since the emergence and development of the idea of the nation state at the end of the eighteenth century and how art can reinvigorate representations of nation states worldwide without relegating their minorities to the margin Instead of merely focusing on the role of place and land in national representations the book adopts a wider and more critical approach to space in the arts by investigating the notions of both hybridity and Bhabha's Third Space in the fields of aesthetics film studies and literature with a particular emphasis on postcolonial literature

Black Gathering Sarah Jane Cervenak, 2021-08-09 In Black Gathering Sarah Jane Cervenak engages with Black artists and writers who create alternative spaces for Black people to gather free from interruption or regulation Drawing together Black feminist theory critical theories of ecology and ecoaesthetics and Black aesthetics Cervenak shows how novelists poets and visual artists such as Gayl Jones Toni Morrison Clementine Hunter Samiya Bashir and Leonardo Drew advance an ecological imagination that unsettles Western philosophical ideas of the earth as given to humans In their aestheticization and conceptualization of gathering these artists investigate the relationships among art the environment home and forms of Black togetherness Cervenak argues that by offering a formal and conceptual praxis of gathering Black artists imagine liberation and alternative ways of being in the world that exist beyond those Enlightenment philosophies that presume Black people and earth as given to enclosure and ownership
