English Learners María V. Balderrama, Lynne T. Díaz-Rico, 2006 Teacher Performance Expectations for Educating English

Learners addresses the needs of elementary and secondary teachers in multilingual classrooms including second language learning across multiple academic subjects. Renowned authors Mar a V Balderrama and Lynne D az Rico provide in a single volume the techniques necessary to prepare teachers and other professionals to teach speakers of other languages and cultural backgrounds. This timely text is designed to be a comprehensive source of teaching techniques and effective educational practices particularly those that meet California s standardized Teacher Performance Assessment that prospective teachers must take. This book specifically addresses those standards by presenting explicit expectations that challenge teachers in multilingual multiethnic classrooms. Subscribing to a teaching approach that respects and builds second language skills upon a foundation of native language proficiency. Teacher Performance Expectations for Educating English Learners contains the most up to date techniques currently available for promoting linguistic proficiency and features multiple effective teaching methods for the educator of English learners. The main tenet of the book is that successful English language learning results from a combination of rich interesting content instruction and a fast moving engaging curriculum.

Making Content Comprehensible for English Learners Jana Echevarria, MaryEllen Vogt, Deborah Short, 2004. Like no other text on the market Making Content Comprehensible presents an empirically validated model of sheltered instruction. This text contains the Sheltered Instruction Observation Protocol SIOP model which provides school administrators staff developers teachers teacher candidates university faculty and field experience supervisors with a tool for observing and quantifying a teacher s implementation of quality sheltered instruction. New to This Edition A new additional chapter addresses the issue of English learners who are struggling readers and or students with disabilities by including detailed information about learning disabilities and delayed development in reading. Ch 10 Revised vignettes present teaching scenarios where three teachers teaching the same grade level and content attempt to include the focal SIOP indicators with varying degrees of success. Complete lesson descriptors allow readers to score the three teaching scenarios and help readers develop a degree of inter rater reliability. New pedagogy. Each chapter contains A graphic organizer that provides an overview of the chapter. Background Sections that include descriptions of the 8 sections and 30 indicators of the SIOP to help readers plan and prepare effective sheltered lessons. Background Discussion Questions appropriate for portfolio development in pre service and graduate classes for professional development workshops or for reflection. The new larger trim size facilitates using in the classroom the SIOP long and short versions and the lesson plan forms and rating the vignettes. Includes both the full SIOP and an abbreviated version for the reader s use. Two different SIOP lesson plan formats that can be used for planning and preparation depending on your needs. An Appendix contains the results of studies that demonstrate that English learners whose teachers used the SIOP model outperformed similar students whose teachers did not implement the model. Making Content Comprehensible is very practical and right on target for strategies in the field of ELLs. Professor Gerald McCain Southern Oregon University. What clearly distinguishes Making Content

Comprehensible from others in the field is that it provides an easy to use powerful field tested protocol for effective lesson planning delivery and assessment Professor Karen L Newman Indiana University The strength of Making Content Comprehensible is the clear picture it provides of instruction and the teaching scenarios The discussion of the teaching techniques and evaluation of each of the three teachers provides invaluable examples for the student Professor Judith B O Loughlin New Jersey City University Author Bios Dr Jana Echevarria is Chair of the Department of Educational Psychology Administration and Counseling at California State University Long Beach Formerly she was a professor of Special Education Her professional experience includes elementary and secondary teaching in special education ESL and bilingual programs She has lived in Taiwan and Mexico where she taught ESL and second language acquisition courses at the university level as well as in Spain where she conducted research on instructional programs for immigrant students After receiving a Masters Degree in Bilingual Special Education from California State University Long Beach she received her Ph D from UCLA and was one of the recipients of the National Association for Bilingual Education s Outstanding Dissertations Competition Her research and publications focus on effective instruction for language minority students particularly those with learning disabilities Mary Ellen Vogt is Professor and Director of Graduate Studies in Reading at California State University Long Beach Prior to her work at the university she was a reading specialist at the school and district levels Dr Vogt is a past president of the California Reading Association and served on the Board of Directors of the International Reading Association She has authored chapters and articles in professional journals and texts and has co authored five books including Portfolios in Teacher Education 1996 International Reading Association Professional Portfolio Models 1998 Christopher Gordon Creativity and Innovation in Content Area Teaching 2000 Christopher Gordon and Making Content Comprehensible for English Language Learners The SIOP Model 2000 Allyn Bacon Dr Vogt is also an author of two K 8 reading series published by Houghton Mifflin Invitations to Literacy and a Legacy of Literacy She has been inducted into the California Reading Hall of Fame and in 1999 she received the Distinguished Faculty Teaching Award from her university Deborah J Short directs the Language Education and Academic Development division at the Center for Applied Linguistics in Washington DC She conducts school based research on sheltered instruction and on effective programs for English language learners She helped develop the national ESL standards Her PhD specialization is bilingual multicultural education A Guide to Writing in English as a Second Or Foreign Language Dan J.
