The role of fallen angels in Islamic tradition Deniz Erdagi,2022-10-14 Essay from the year 2022 in the subject Theology Comparative Religion Studies grade 1 0 University of Hamburg Akademie der Weltreligionen course Koran und Exegese language English abstract The essay is based on 5 years of studying the role of angels jinn and devils in Muslim literature evaluating both Western academic as well as Muslim religious sources The author himself wrote this from a believer s point of view of their own Muslim experience and invites both Muslims to rethink the recent changes of Islamic doctrines and Western academics to set a first step into exploring the rich traditions about spiritual entities within Islam Remember that this is merely an essay A deeper understanding of the discussed topics can be accessed by following the literature provided in the footnotes Islam Among the Swahili in East Africa Caleb Chul-soo Kim,2004 Magic,

Divination and Demonology Thomas Witton Davies,1898 The World of Angels Malaikah & Demon Jinn in Islam Religion Muhammad Vandestra,2017-09-14 In common folklore angels or malaikah are thought of as good forces of nature hologram images or illusions Western iconography sometimes depicts angels as fat cherubic babies or handsome young men or women with a halo surrounding their head In Islamic doctrine they are real created beings who will eventually suffer death but are generally hidden from our senses They are not divine or semi divine and they are not God s associates running different districts of the universe Also they are not objects to be worshipped or prayed to as they do not deliver our prayers to God They all submit to God and carry out His commands In the Islamic worldview there are no fallen angels they are not divided into good and evil angels Human beings do not become angels after death Satan is not a fallen angel but is one of the jinn demon a creation of God parallel to human beings and angels Angels were created from light before human beings were created and thus their graphic or symbolic representation in Islamic art is rare Nevertheless they are generally beautiful beings with wings as described in Muslim scripture The Arabic word Jinn is from the verb Janna and means to hide or conceal The Jinn or Demon are so called because they conceal themselves from people s sight The words janeen foetus and mijann shield come from the same root Jinn or demon as the name suggests are normally invisible to humans The jinn are part of God s creation They were created from fire before the creation of Adam and humankind And indeed We created man from dried sounding clay of altered mud And the jinn Demon We created aforetime from the smokeless flame of fire Quran 15 26 27 According to the traditions of Prophet Muhammad the angels were created from light the jinn from fire and humankind from what has been described to you meaning clay God created the angels jinn and humankind for no other purpose then to worship Him I did not create the Jinn and mankind except to worship Me Quran 51 56 Jinn exist in our world but they live on their own Jinn have their own distinct nature and features and they generally remain hidden from humankind Jinn and humans do have some common traits the most important of which is free will and with it the ability to choose between good and evil right and wrong The jinn eat and drink they marry have children and die
