Roger II of Sicily Hubert Houben, 2002-04-04 Although many studies have addressed important aspects of medieval southern Italy this was the first work for nearly ninety years to be devoted specifically to the life and reign of King Roger II the founder of the kingdom of Sicily The book provides a comprehensive introductory narrative of the reign and a clear scholarly analysis of its culture and of the development of royal government The kingdom created by the Norman Roger of Hauteville in the first half of the twelfth century was a monarchy with highly developed absolutist ideas an elaborate bureaucracy a reasonably well filled treasury and a mixed cultural heritage reflected by the presence of Arabs and Greeks at court Based on many years of research in archives and libraries across Europe the book offers a valuable overview of one of the most striking periods in south Italian and European history

The Normans in the South, 1016-1130 John Julius Norwich, 2018-03 Chronicling the other Norman invasion The Normans in the South is the epic story of the House of Hauteville and in particular Robert Guiscard perhaps the most extraordinary European adventurer between the times of Caesar and Napoleon In one year 1084 he had both the Eastern and Western Emperors retreating before him and one of the most formidable of medieval Popes in his power His brother Roger helped him to conquer Sicily from the Saracens and his nephew Roger II went on to create the cosmopolitan kingdom whose remaining monuments still dazzle us today The Normans in the South is the first of two volumes that recount an extraordinary chapter in Italian history

A Cumulative Bibliography of Medieval Military History and Technology, Update 2004 Kelly DeVries, 2004-12-01 This is the first update of A Cumulative Bibliography of Medieval Military History and Technology which appeared in 2002 It is meant to do two things to present references to works on medieval military history and technology not included in the first volume and to present references to all books and articles published on medieval military history and technology from 2000 to 2002 These references are divided into the same categories as in the first volume and cover a chronological period of the same length from late antiquity to 1648 again in order to present a more complete picture of influences on and from the Middle Ages It also continues to cover the same geographical area as the first volume in essence Europe and the Middle East or again influences on and from this area The languages of these bibliographical references reflect this geography
