The Parliamentarian, 2017 Improving facilities for educational visitors to Parliament Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Administration Committee, 2007-04-18 This report looks at improving visitor s access to Parliament and assesses what the focus of Parliament s visitor services should be and who should be the main target audience The report sets out options for varying scales of visitor facilities and what kind of facilities should be provided and what proposals for change are required One part of the strategy is to improve public engagement with Parliament with an upgrade of the Parliamentary website Also an upgrade of the new visitor route through the Visitor Reception Building and Westminster Hall along with a better welcome for visitors Further initiatives to explain the work of the select committees to the media along with outreach programmes to schools and the wider public The Committee is sceptical of the value for money of a full scale visitor centre and states that existing strategies such as improved educational facilities about Parliament and its working would provide better engagement with the public School trips to Parliament would be the best means of communicating the work and history of the institution The Committee recommends improved facilities for the Parliamentary Education Service

The operation of the Parliamentary Standards Act 2009 Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Committee on Members' Expenses, 2011-12-12 This report emphasises the importance of independent regulation of the system for reimbursing MPs costs of the continuing need for transparency and the need for value for money The Committee concludes that the aims set out for the new system in 2009 were the right ones but have not been sufficiently achieved In particular the cost to the taxpayer is too high and the time spent dealing with the system hinders MPs in performing their parliamentary duties to the detriment of constituents and the country Proposals made include separating the administrative and regulatory roles of the Independent Parliamentary Standards Authority IPSA improving the transparency of IPSA s publication of claims a cost benefit analysis of how the accommodation and travel part of the system could be simplified African
