The Suit Form Function And Style:

The Suit Christopher Breward, 2016-04-15 A beautifully tailored history of this fashion staple at once a garment of tradition power and subversion The Suit unpicks the story of this most familiar garment from its emergence in western Europe at the end of the seventeenth century to today Suit wearing figures such as the Savile Row gentleman and the Wall Street businessman have long embodied ideas of tradition masculinity power and respectability but the suit has also been used to disrupt concepts of gender and conformity Adopted and subverted by women artists musicians and social revolutionaries through the decades from dandies and Sapeurs to the Zoot Suit and Le Smoking the suit is also a device for challenging the status quo For all those interested in the history of menswear this beautifully illustrated book offers new perspectives on this most mundane and poetic product of modern culture

The Routledge Companion to Fashion Studies Eugenia Paulicelli, Veronica Manlow, Elizabeth Wissinger, 2021-09-19 This collection of original essays interrogates disciplinary boundaries in fashion gathering fashion studies research across disciplines and from around the globe Fashion and clothing are part of material and visual culture cultural memory and heritage they contribute to shaping the way people see themselves interact and consume For each of the volume s eight parts scholars from across the world and a variety of disciplines offer analytical tools for further research Never neglecting the interconnectedness of disciplines and domains these original contributions survey specific topics and critically discuss the leading views in their areas They include discursive and reflective pieces as well as discussions of original empirical work and contributors include established leaders in the field rising stars and new voices including practitioner and industry voices This is a comprehensive overview of the field ideal not only for undergraduate and postgraduate fashion studies students but also for researchers and students in communication studies the humanities gender and critical race studies social sciences and fashion design and business

The Cambridge Global History of Fashion: Volume 2 Christopher Breward, Beverly Lemire, Giorgio Riello, 2023-08-17 Volume II surveys the history of fashion from the nineteenth century to the present day Covering the period beginning with mass industry and ending with calls for sustainability this volume challenges the meaning of modernity and modernism from a global perspective and reflects on important scholarship that has changed our understanding of the relationship between fashion and colonialism Empires shifted and new powers rose with fashion marking and contending with this change The volume concludes with a critical view of fashion and globalisation and explores the deep connections between the fashion industry the global economy and the politics of production and wearing in the contemporary world

Styling Shanghai Christopher Breward, Juliette MacDonald, 2020-01-23 Styling Shanghai is the first book dedicated to exploring the city s fashion cultures examining its growing status as one of the world s foremost fashion cities From its origins as an international treaty port in the 19th century Shanghai has emerged as a global leader in the production mediation and consumption of fashion This book reveals how the material and imaginative context of this thriving urban centre has produced vivid interpretations of fashion as object image and idea Bringing together contributions by a range of leading international fashion historians and theorists and drawing on extensive original research Styling Shanghai offers an interdisciplinary analysis of the mega city s shifting position as a fashion capital Rooted in collaboration between leading UK Australian and Shanghai based institutions it considers the impact of local and global textile manufacturing the representation and marketing of Shanghai Style bodies and gender in the Paris of the East and the challenges of globalization commercialization and digital communication in contemporary Shanghai

Queering the Interior Andrew Gorman-Murray, Matt Cook, 2020-06-11 Queering the Interior problematizes the familiar space of home It deploys a queer lens to view domestic interiors and conventions and uncovers some of the complexities of homemaking for queer people Each of the book s six sections focuses on a different room or space inside the home The journey starts with entryways and continues through kitchens living spaces bedrooms bathrooms and finally closets and studies In each case up to three specialists bring their disciplinary expertise and queer perspectives to bear The result is a fascinating collection of essays by scholars from literary studies geography sociology anthropology history and art history The contributors use historical and sociological case studies spatial art and literary analyses interviews and experimental visual approaches to deliver fresh detailed and grounded perspectives on the home and its queer dimensions A highly creative approach to the analysis of domestic spaces Queering the Interior makes an important contribution to the fields of gender studies social and cultural history cultural studies design architecture anthropology sociology and cultural geography

The Bebop Scene in London's Soho, 1945-1950 Ray Kinsella, 2022-11-23 This is the first book to tell the story of the bebop subculture in London s Soho a subculture that emerged in 1945 and reached its pinnacle in 1950 In an exploration via the intersections of race class and gender it shows how bebop identities were constructed and articulated Combining a wide range of archival research and theory the book evocatively demonstrates how the scene evolved in Soho s clubs the fashion that formed around the music drug usage amongst a contingent of the group and the moral panic which led to the police raids on the clubs between 1947 and 1950 Thereafter it maps the changes in popular culture in Soho during the 1950s and argues that the bebop story is an important precedent to the institutional harassment of black related spaces and culture that continued in the twentieth and twenty first centuries This book therefore rewrites the first chapter of the classic subcultural canon and resets the subcultural clock requiring us to rethink the periodization and social make up of British post war youth subcultures
