Stories from the Tenants Downstairs Sidik Fofana, 2022-08-16 WINNER of the Gotham Book Prize Finalist for the Los Angeles Times Art Seidenbaum Award and the Ernest J Gaines Award for Literary Excellence Longlisted for the Story Prize Named a BEST BOOK OF THE YEAR by NPR Kirkus Reviews Library Journal Chicago Review of Books LitHub and Electric Lit A standout achievement American speech is an underused commodity in contemporary fiction and it's a joy to find such a vital example of it here The Wall Street Journal From a superb new literary talent a rich lyrical collection of stories about a tight knit cast of characters grappling with their own personal challenges while the forces of gentrification threaten to upend life as they know it At Banneker Terrace everybody knows everybody or at least knows of them Longtime tenants lives are entangled together in the ups and downs of the day to day for better or for worse The neighbors in the unit next door are friends or family childhood rivals or enterprising business partners In other words Harlem is home But the rent is due and the clock of gentrification never far from anyone's mind is ticking louder now than ever In eight interconnected stories Sidik Fofana conjures a residential community under pressure There is Swan in apartment 6B whose excitement about his friend's release from prison jeopardizes the life he's been trying to lead Mimi in apartment 14D hustles to raise the child she had with Swan waitressing at Roscoe's and doing hair on the side And Quanneisha B Miles in apartment 21J is a former gymnast with a good education who wishes she could leave Banneker for good but can't seem to escape the building's gravitational pull We root for the tight knit cast of characters as they weave in and out of one another's narratives working to escape their pasts and blaze new paths forward for themselves and the people they love All the while we brace as they do for the challenges of a rapidly shifting future Stories from the Tenants Downstairs brilliantly captures the joy and pain of the human experience in this singular accomplishment from a writer to watch Library Journal starred review
