

The background image is a high-angle, dramatic photograph of a theater stage at night. The stage is dark, with several powerful spotlights creating bright, vertical beams of light that illuminate the scene. In the center of the stage, a lone performer in a red dress is visible, standing on a circular pattern on the floor. The audience seating is visible in the foreground, and the theater's architecture, including a balcony with a railing, is partially visible on the left. The overall atmosphere is one of theatrical grandeur and focus.
