representation through which successive writers sought to represent the East and the British experience of it tropes such as exploring the hinterland going native and the figure of rule itself Eastern Figures is accessible to anyone interested in the literary and cultural history of empire and its aftermath It will be of especial interest to students and scholars of colonial and postcolonial writing as it raises issues of identity and representation power and knowledge and centrally the question of how to represent other people It has original ideas and approaches to offer specialists in literary history of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries cultural historians and researchers in colonial discourse analysis postcolonial studies and Asian area studies and history It is also aimed at students in courses in literature and empire culture and imperialism and cross cultural studies
