Sawyer, 2000-04-15 Science fiction      The Prison of Time Elisa Pezzotta, 2022-08-25 We are imprisoned in circadian rhythms as well as in our life reviews that follow chronological and causal links For the majority of us our lives are vectors directed toward aims that we strive to reach and delimited by our birth and death Nevertheless we can still experience fleeting moments during which we forget the past and the future as well as the very flow of time During these intense emotions we burst out laughing or crying or we scream with pleasure or we are mesmerized by a work of art or just by eyes staring at us Similarly when we watch a film the screening time has a well defined beginning and end and screening and diegetic time and their relations together with narrative and stylistic techniques determine a time within the time of our life with its own rules and exceptions Through the close analysis of Stanley Kubrick's Adrian Lyne's Michael Bay's and Quentin Tarantino's oeuvres this book discusses the overall dominating time of their films and the moments during which this ruling time is disrupted and we momentarily forget the run toward the diegetic future suspense or the past curiosity and surprise It is in these very moments as well as in our own lives that the prison of time through which the film is constructed and that is constructed by the film itself crumbles displaying our role as spectators our deepest relations with the film

Chick TV Yael Levy, 2022-03-14 Tony Soprano Don Draper and Walter White ushered in the era of the television antihero with compelling narratives and complex characters While critics and academics celebrated these characters the antiheroines who populated television screens in the twenty first century were pushed to the margins and dismissed as chick TV In this volume Yael Levy advances antiheroines to the forefront of television criticism revealing the varied and subtle ways in which they perform feminist resistance Offering a retooling of gendered media analyses Levy finds antiheroism not only in the morally questionable cop and tormented lawyer but also in the housewife and nurse who inhabit more stereotypical feminine roles By analyzing Girls Desperate Housewives Nurse Jackie Being Mary Jane Jane Grey's Anatomy Six Feet Under Sister Wives and the Real Housewives franchise Levy explores the narrative complexities of chick TV and the radical feminist potential of these shows      Time in Twenty-First-Century British and American Literature Sonia Front, 2025-06-20 This book investigates representations of time in twenty first century Anglo American literature In the digital era characterized by a new regime of time fiction offers revisions of prevalent oppressive notions of time that can serve as productive political strategies to reclaim the agency of the subject This book discusses literary texts that craft innovative temporal structures out of sync with the new time logic suspended temporality Chapter 1 time as a conflation of phenomenological experience and cosmological laws Chapter 2 previewing the future Chapter 3 and networked memory Chapter 4 The proposed politically productive temporalities such as deep presence or resonance compatibilism contingency and the use of narrative as a chronologizing strategy ground a vision of change and suggest a way out of the crisis of time Identifying new timeframes in twenty first century fiction by an array of writers this book demonstrates that literature remains a valid medium for theorizing and representing time Eye Movement Desensitization and Reprocessing (EMDR) Therapy Scripted Protocols and Summary Sheets Marilyn Luber, 2015-08-19 EMDR Therapy is a psychotherapy approach based on standard procedures and protocols. This is an important resource that focuses on applying EMDR therapy to anxiety, obsessive compulsive and mood related disorders using EMDR Therapy's standard procedures and protocols as its template. Edited by a leading EMDR scholar and practitioner, it delivers step by step protocols that enable beginning practitioners as well as seasoned EMDR clinicians, trainers and consultants to enhance their expertise more quickly when treating clients or groups of clients with these conditions. These chapters reflect the expertise of EMDR clinicians treating anxiety disorders including specific phobia, panic disorder and generalized anxiety disorder, obsessive compulsive disorders including body dysmorphic disorder, olfactory reference syndrome and hoarding behaviors, and mood disorders including bipolar disorder, major depression and postpartum depression. For each topic, authors include relevant questions for history taking, helpful resources and explanations frequently used, negative and positive cognitions and information on case conceptualization and treatment planning. Comprised of past, present and future templates, the scripts are conveniently presented in an easy to use manual style format that facilitates a reliable, consistent procedure. Summary sheets for each protocol support quick retrieval of essential issues and components for the clinician while putting together a treatment plan for the client. These scripted protocols and completed summary sheets can be inserted right into a client's chart for easy documentation. Scripts and summary sheets are available also in an expandable, downloadable format for easy digital access for each protocol to simplify the gathering of information and to document it in clients' charts in a consistent format. This facilitates quick retrieval of the essential issues and components needed by clinicians to create appropriate treatment plans and easy access to client information.

Time, Technology and Narrative Form in Contemporary US Television Drama JP Kelly, 2017-10-09 This book examines how television has been transformed over the past twenty years by the introduction of new viewing technologies including DVDs, DVRs and streaming services such as Netflix, Hulu and Amazon Prime. It shows that these platforms have profoundly altered the ways we access and watch television, enabling viewers to pause, rewind, record and archive the once irreversible flow of broadcast TV. JP Kelly argues that changes in the technological landscape of television has encouraged the production of narrative forms that both explore and embody new industrial temporalities. Focusing on US television but also considering the role of TV within a global marketplace, the author identifies three distinct narrative temporalities: acceleration (24, Prison Break), complexity (Lost, FlashForward) and retrospection (Mad Men). Through industrial textual analysis of television, this cross disciplinary study locates these narrative temporalities in their socio-cultural contexts and examines connections between production, distribution and narrative form in the contemporary television industry.

Discourse Organization in the Comprehension of Narrative Texts Keisuke Ohtsuka, William F. Brewer, 1988 Pascalian Fictions Van Kelly, 1992 Pascalian Fictions presents the thesis that in fragments 135 and 418 in Lafuma's edition and a fortiori throughout the Pensées

we see a coherent dialectic with Descartes and Cartesian thought Kelly asserts that these two fragments contain a strident and active attempt on the part of Pascal to grapple with and subvert Descartes's ontological premises and to replace them with categories more germane to his system of Christian apologetics Kelly's work focuses via an innovative analysis of structure form and syntax on narrative fiction as a mode of discourse in the Pensées and particularly in the famous pari
