The lyrics are written below the notes, with some words underlined to indicate phrasing. The score is divided into two systems of four staves each, with a final staff at the bottom.

Through the Eyes of a South African Woman and Other Children Andrina D. Abrahamse, 2012-04-10 In 1958 South Africa was going through one of its most horrendous eras Apartheid Andrina Abrahamse writes a riveting personal account of her experiences growing up and working during this pivotal period Drina as she was known to her family and friends suffered atrocities beyond comprehension as a child Beatings were the norm and she sustained her sanity by telling herself If I can learn something every time I cry the tears will not have been in vain Her formative years were filled with memories of a system that turned peace loving men into bitter and hopeless people youth into soldiers and ignored a silent deadly epidemic AIDS that ravaged thousands of bodies and created orphans and desolate street children As an abused child her sensitivity to the children s plights was intensified Becoming a nurse Drina s profession eventually led her to the United States where she and her family found themselves evacuees from Hurricane Rita Looking into the eyes of the victims who already were suffering because of the aftermath of Hurricane Rita s predecessor

Hurricane Katrina brought back with startling and painful revelation another time place and people who continue to suffer on a scale so enormous it seems insurmountable Her story embraces the time period of Apartheid from 1958 to 1994 and gives voice to the children who continue to suffer Its purpose is to educate heal and inspire and it does so with poignant and beautiful clarity The New Rolling Stone Album Guide Nathan Brackett,Christian David Hoard,2004 Publisher Description
