Burnout The Cost Of Caring:

Burnout Christina Maslach, 2003 This book shows how to recognize prevent and cure burnout syndrome for nurses teachers counselors doctors therapists police social workers and anyone else who cares about and for people Christina Maslach the leading pioneer in research on burnout offers help using illustrative examples and first hand accounts She points out what causes the feelings of emotional exhaustion the callous indifference to people s problems and the sense of inadequacy about one s ability to help and relate to others Study in Burnout: The Cost of Caring James D. Potter, 1991

Cambridge Handbook of Psychology, Health and Medicine Susan Ayers, Andrew Baum, Chris McManus, Stanton Newman, Kenneth Wallston, John Weinman, Robert West, 2007-08-23 Health psychology is a rapidly expanding discipline at the interface of psychology and clinical medicine This new edition is fully reworked and revised offering an entirely up to date comprehensive accessible one stop resource for clinical psychologists mental health professionals and specialists in health related matters There are two new editors Susan Ayers from the University of Sussex and Kenneth Wallston from Vanderbilt University Medical Center The prestigious editorial team and their international interdisciplinary cast of authors have reconceptualised their much acclaimed handbook The book is now in two parts part I covers psychological aspects of health and illness assessments interventions and healthcare practice Part II covers medical matters listed in alphabetical order Among the many new topics added are diet and health ethnicity and health clinical interviewing mood assessment communicating risk medical interviewing diagnostic procedures organ donation IVF MMR HRT sleep disorders skin disorders depression and anxiety disorders The Alienated Librarian Marcia J. Nauratil, 1989-07-21 The Alienated Librarian is a thoughtful thorough analysis of the proletarianization of professional work throughout history What this book does is to present a penetrating investigation of the problem draw thoughtful conclusions and suggest coping strategies Collection Management This excellent book should attract a wide audience including professional librarians library school faculty and students library administrators and the consulting community It is highly recommended Information Processing Management Nauratil s analysis does help us gain an understanding of the issue just as her concluding chapter on coping and beyond may help us address the issue when we are confronted with it Wilson Library Bulletin Perhaps because of the popular stereotype of librarianship as a low pressure nonstressful profession librarians have been largely overlooked in current research on occupational burnout Yet like other human service personnel who are in continual contact with the public more and more librarians are experiencing burnout and consequent alienation in the workplace This study is the first to provide a comprehensive analysis of the problem as it exists among today s librarians Nauratil begins with an examination of the burnout phenomenon and the factors that contribute to stress and alienation in the human service professions She discusses the additional pressures resulting from the dilemmas faced by libraries including dwindling budgets theft of library materials understaffing and the demand for broader or improved services The costs associated with burnout such as reduced productivity rapid employee turnover and deterioration of services are also considered The author asks whether alienation and burnout are the inevitable consequences of the librarian s job under contemporary conditions and assesses the possible long term effects of current developments both within library systems and in the communities and institutions they serve Finally she explores various strategies for coping with this type of occupational hazard and for strengthening the library system as a whole This carefully researched and clearly written work will be a valuable resource for courses or research in librarianship occupational sociology personnel management and related subjects
