Dodge,2021-04-06 The Taiwanese Making of the Canada Presbyterian Mission explores the Canadian Presbyterian Mission to Northern Taiwan 1872 1915 The Canada Presbyterian Mission has often been portrayed as one of the nineteenth century s most successful missions and its founder George Leslie Mackay has been called the most successful Protestant Missionary of all time Mark Dodge challenges the heroic narrative by exploring the motives and actions of the Taiwanese actors who supported and established the mission Religious leaders teachers doctors and businessmen from Northern Taiwan collaborated to build a strong and vital mission whose phenomenal success brought fame and status to Mackay and their cause In turn this status provided a protective space in which these Taiwanese patrons were able to exert significant economic and political autonomy in spite of pressures from competing colonial interests This book will be of particular interest to students and historians of nineteenth century East Asia as well as scholars of comparative colonialism with a focus on missionary history and cultural colonialism

Environmental Geology Carla W. Montgomery, Steven D. Carey, 1991-10 Intended for the introductory level college course the principal aim of this text is to present the student with a broad overview of environmental geology The text looks both at how the earth developed into its present condition and where matters seem to be moving for the future It is hoped that this knowledge will provide the student with a useful foundation for discussing and evaluating specific environmental issues as well as for developing ideas about how the problems should be solved
