The first system of music consists of two staves. The right staff is in treble clef with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat) and a common time signature. It begins with a dynamic marking of mp and contains several measures of music, including a triplet of eighth notes. The left staff is in bass clef and contains a steady eighth-note accompaniment. A performance instruction With pedal is placed below the first measure of the left staff.

The second system continues the piece. The right staff features a melodic line with a first ending bracket over the final two measures. The left staff continues the accompaniment, with a dynamic marking of p appearing in the second measure.

The third system shows further development of the melody and accompaniment. The right staff has a first ending bracket over the final two measures. The left staff continues with eighth-note accompaniment.

The fourth system concludes the piece. The right staff has a first ending bracket over the final two measures. The left staff continues with eighth-note accompaniment.
