Claude Simon:

Claude Simon Celia Britton, 2014-09-19 This is a major study of the Nobel prize winning French novelist Claude Simon. Simon is a complex figure for all that he writes in a distinctively modern fictional tradition exemplified by Proust, Joyce, Beckett and Robbe-Grillet; his novels contain strong elements of visual representation alongside a very different kind of free-floating anti-realist writing.

The Novels of Claude Simon J. A. E. Loubère, 2019-06-30 This lucid and illuminating study traces the development of an extraordinary experimental writer from his earliest work of the 1940s to his most recent fiction. Ms Loubère assesses Simon's aims and achievements and parallels his development as a novelist to the development of the modern novel itself, showing how both moved from traditionalist forms and material toward the highly idiosyncratic New Novel. After discussing his early works, she devotes a chapter each to Le Vent, L'Herbe, La Route des Flandres, Le Palace, Histoire, La Bataille de Pharsale, Les Corps conducteurs, and Triptyque. Step by step, she points out the changes in technique and focus that occur in each succeeding novel as Simon rejects conventional forms and introduces new ones.

Claude Simon Jean H. Duffy, Alastair B. Duncan, 2002-01-01 This collection of essays celebrates the work of the French Nobel prize winning novelist Claude Simon. Scholars reconsider the fifty years of Simon's fiction in the light of his large-scale autobiographical novel Le Jardin des Plantes (1997). From a variety of perspectives, postmodernist, psychoanalytic, aesthetic, chapters reflect on the central paradox of Simon's work: his writing and rewriting of an experience of war so disruptive and traumatic that words can never be adequate to communicate it.

Understanding Claude Simon Ralph William Sarkonak, 1990 In 1985 Claude Simon won the Nobel Prize for Literature. This book provides an introduction to and survey of the most important novels written by a man considered by many to be the most important and innovative writer of the French New Novel group. The book's introduction situates Simon in the context of 20th-century French literature. Ten chapters are devoted to the principle works published by Simon from The Wind (1957) to his masterpiece The Georgics (1981). The bibliography lists the most significant critical studies in English and French devoted to his work.

Claude Simon Alina Cherry, 2016-08-16 Claude Simon: Fashioning the Past by Writing the Present considers the aesthetic, cultural, and philosophical facets of a temporal paradox in the works of French novelist Claude Simon (1913-2005) and its broader implications for the study of narrative and for cultural and post-modern theory. This paradox emerges from the problematic representation of the past through an aesthetic rooted in an exclusive valorization of the present. In his 1985 Nobel speech, as well as on other numerous occasions, Simon expressed a fascination with simultaneity through the provocative claim that he never wrote about the past but attempted to capture only what was happening during the writing process—that is, in the present of writing, as he put it. Simon's seemingly unambiguous claim raises significant issues and contradictions that become extensively apparent when the statement is considered in the light of his fictional works, since these must be construed for the most part as explorations of the past. In this study, Alina Cherry proposes to look at the tensions that arise from this paradox and examine the present of writing holistically that is both as a stylistic device and within the thematic context of Simon's works in order to assess its capacity for becoming an instrument of ontological and epistemological inquiry that can also intervene powerfully in the decisive philosophical and socio-political debates that have animated the cultural landscape of post-World War II France. Simon's vivid portrayals of suffering and devastation open new ways of understanding the impact of some of the most traumatic historical events of the twentieth century: the two World Wars and the Spanish Civil War. This impact is necessarily connected with a need to tell these events and to tell them in highly innovative ways, namely by creating a distinctive style that revolutionizes the outworn narrative traditions of a world whose very foundations have been shattered by the chaos of war and effectively undermines various institutions and dominant socio-cultural structures, revealing implicitly and explicitly a strong ethical vein. Orion Blinded Randi Birn, 1981. Encyclopedia of Modern French Thought Christopher John Murray, 2004. This work covers not only philosophy but also all the other major disciplines including literary theory, sociology, linguistics, political thought, theology, and more. The 240 analytical entries examine individuals such as Bergson, Durkheim, Mauss, Sartre, Beauvoir, Foucault, Levi-Strauss, Lacan, Kristeva, and Derrida; specific disciplines such as the arts, anthropology, historiography, psychology, and sociology; key beliefs and methodologies such as Catholicism, deconstruction, feminism, Marxism, and phenomenology; themes and concepts such as freedom, language, media, and sexuality; and historical, political, social, and intellectual context. From publisher's description.

Encyclopedia of the Novel Paul Schellinger, 2014-04-08. The Encyclopedia of the Novel is the first reference book that focuses on the development of the novel throughout the world. Entries on individual writers assess the place of that writer within the development of the novel form, explaining why and in exactly what ways that writer is important. Similarly, an entry on an individual novel discusses the importance of that novel, not only from analyzing the particular innovations that novel has introduced and the ways in which it has influenced the subsequent course of the genre. A wide range of topic entries explore the history, criticism, theory, production, dissemination, and reception of the novel. A very important component of the Encyclopedia of the Novel is its long surveys of development of the novel in various regions of the world. French

XX Bibliography William J. Thompson, 2006-09. Provides a listing available of books, articles, and book reviews concerned with French literature since 1885. This work is a reference source in the study of modern French literature and culture. The bibliography is divided into three major divisions: general studies, author subjects arranged alphabetically, and cinema.

New Novel, New Wave, New Politics Lynn A. Higgins, 1998-03-01. Until now, writings on the celebrated movements in literature and film that emerged in France in the mid-1950s—the New Novel and New Wave—have concentrated on their formal innovations, not on their engagement with history or politics. New Novel, New Wave, New Politics overturns this traditional approach. Lynn A. Higgins argues that the New Novelists, e.g., Alain Robbe-Grillet, Claude Simon, Marguerite Duras, and New Wave filmmakers, e.g., Claude Chabrol, François Truffaut, Jean-Luc Godard, Alain Resnais, engage in a kind of historiography.

They enact the conflicts the double binds of postwar history and representation Higgins claims that what art historian Serge Guilbaut has said of American Abstract Expressionism is equally true of the New Novel and New Wave that its aesthetic innovations provided a way for avant garde artists to preserve their sense of social commitment while eschewing the art of propaganda and illustration It was in a sense a political apoliticism Higgins shows how the New Novel and New Wave are related developments While their individual styles and themes remain distinctive she writes they share an ecriture that can be described as alternately or interconnectedly filmic and novelistic New Wave filmmakers borrowed novelistic devices and made frequent literary allusions while the vision of the novelists is distinctly cinematic A lively account that takes us to the crossroads where culture and politics meet New Novel New Wave New Politics dramatically revises our view of a whole generation of important influential artists Reading Between the Lines Jean H. Duffy, 1998-01-01 This is the first extended analysis of Simon's novels examining the relationship between the work of the French Nobel prize winning novelist Claude Simon and that of a number of visual artists whose work he has used as stimuli in the production of his novels Nobel Prize Laureates in Literature Thomson Gale (Firm), 2007 A biographical bibliographical guide to the writers who have received the Nobel Prize in Literature Provides entries for each Nobel Prize laureate Entries also include the Nobel Prize in Literature presentation speech for the corresponding year and the banquet speech given by the Nobel Prize laureate The Invitation Claude Simon, 1992 This 1987 novel by Nobel Prize winner Claude Simon is a sardonic look at glasnost Russia where recent reforms and improvements carry all the conviction of rouge on a corpse The narrator is one of fifteen international guests who have been invited on a goodwill tour of the new Soviet Union Whisked from one staged event to another from Moscow to Central Asia enduring hours of rigid Soviet hospitality the guests react with varying degrees of stupefaction and disgust to a society whose recent renovations ill disguise a bloody and repressive past The Invitation is a reminder that although the Cold War may be over the past cannot and should not be forgotten the Soviets have a new game to play diplomacy rather than military force but Simon voices skepticism in our current era of pro Soviet sentiment The chief attraction of The Invitation is Simon's celebrated style long convoluted sentences register the narrator's impressions sometimes dragging with fatigue but always sharpened with sensuous details and spiked with mordant satire No one is named but the reader will see through their identities as easily as the narrator sees through the sham of perestroika This compact masterpiece of political satire concludes with an afterword by Lois Oppenheim a noted authority on Simon's work Claude Simon--Biography , The Nobel Foundation presents a biographical sketch of Madagascan novelist Claude Simon 1913 Simon received the 1985 Nobel prize in literature in recognition of his novels which depict the human condition The foundation highlights his career his education and his works Fiction in French - Fiction in Soviet British Library, 2013-02-07 No detailed description available for Fiction in French Fiction in Soviet The Shaping of History and Poetry in Late Medieval France Cynthia Jane Brown, 1985 Claude Simon , 1985 The Champion of Her Sex George

The most interesting French fiction since World War II is also the most revolutionary exploring new narrative techniques and incorporating challenging new ideas in aesthetics politics psychoanalysis gender linguistics and philosophy This fiction looks strange and forbidding to American readers however which makes Roudiez's overview of postwar French fiction a welcome guide In a revised and updated version of his French Fiction Today Roudiez includes chapters on an important precursor Raymond Roussel and on thirteen of the most significant innovators in French fiction A concluding chapter discusses younger writers like Muriel Cerf and Patrick Grainville who are carrying on this revolutionary activity and an extensive bibliography includes all English translations of their work As the Virginia Quarterly Review said of the first edition This is a masterful analysis which should serve handily as a thoroughly reliable guide and reference tool for many years to come
