Ancient Sins . . . Modern Addictions R. Scott Sullender,2013-07-05 There is a virtual epidemic of addiction in the United States both traditional addictions to drugs and alcohol but also newer addictions like sex gambling rage work and food eating Some authorities have labeled addictions the number one mental health problem in America We are spending millions of dollars annually trying to prevent understand and treat this epidemic and yet by any measure of success we are losing this war In this cultural context Dr Sullender invites us to look again at the spiritually based scheme of the Seven Deadly Sins which originated at the dawn of Western civilization He suggests that what our spiritual forebears meant by deadly is best captured in the modern concept of addiction Based on this thesis this book explores what is addictive about the sins of pride envy anger greed gluttony sloth and lust and suggests that these sins are all obsessive and as such become the mental component in the addictive cycle Each chapter concludes by offering some spiritual resources practices and insights that can help us win the battle against addiction which is ultimately won or lost on a mental or spiritual plane

The Whole Person Recovery Handbook Emma Drew,2015-08-20 The idea of recovery is that people learn to live with the past and with their imperfections and find positive steps forward that work for them Whole Person Recovery WPR aims to co design treatment with the addict build recovery capital and maximise chances of success by supporting the addict to take control of their recovery This joint process has been shown to be more effective than traditional approaches to treatment and is fast influencing and overtaking such approaches At the heart of the process is self acceptance safe space trust learning human warmth and kindness Topics include Substance abuse disorder and addictive behaviour disorder Related mental health problems such as severe depression Traditional recovery methods eg 12 step programmes The importance of person centred counselling The baggage finding ways to manage past feelings and experiences Breaking routines developing skills and capabilities for the future Treatment formal and informal services and support Making a plan formal and informal coping strategies The rest of my life getting well and staying well

The ReWired Brain Dr. Ski Chilton,Dr. Margaret Rukstalis,A. J. Gregory,2016-08-02 Trade Negative Thinking for Confident Fearless Living Most of us don t realize that we have a surprising amount of control over our own thoughts and behaviors and can unintentionally influence our brains negatively causing cycles of bad choices and experiences The ReWired Brain offers a clear framework for understanding our brains and the decisions we make showing how certain fears and instincts drive unhealthy emotional dysfunctions and related behavioral patterns in the most important areas of life This book shows how to reframe negative experiences experience emotional and spiritual healing and ultimately rewire our brains empowering to live fearlessly

Taking the State out of the Body Eliana Rubin,2024-09-24 Taking the State out of the Body is a guidebook in deconstructing nationalism through trauma informed praxis Embedded in the political theory and practice of Jewish anti Zionism it invites readers of all backgrounds to build an embodied sense of safety that has the power to make militarized borders policing and nation states obsolete We need the resources offered in this book from understanding geopolitical impacts of intergenerational trauma to self regulation in conflict to transformative approaches to harm to cultivating long haul relationships to building solidarity across our movements The book s framework is situated in the lineages of healing justice and politicized healers including many antifascist Ashkenazi Jewish practitioners in 1930s Europe Today as the terms somatics and trauma have been mainstreamed Taking the State out of the Body is a timely offer to move from individual awareness to collective action Weaving anti imperialist orientations to historical events with embodiment theory each chapter opens with a connection to a plant or body part and closes with a guide to practices that fuel resistance and resilience This book will equip you with the tools you need to move from rugged individualist models of self help preservation to liberatory frameworks of collective care and joint struggle

The Quick-Reference Guide to Counseling Women Dr. Tim Clinton, Timothy E. Clinton, Dr. Diane Langberg, 2011-09 Internationally recognized AACC President and leading women s counseling expert offer a practical comprehensive and biblical guide to counseling women Father Ralph Pfau and the Golden Books Glenn F. Chesnut, 2017-01-04 Father Ralph Pfau was one of AAs four most published and most formative authors along with Bill Wilson Richmond Walker and Ed Webster during the new movements earliest thirty years during which it grew from only 100 members to almost 300 000 In the first ten years Pfau spent working to spread AA he said I have traveled nearly 750 000 miles I have spoken before nearly two hundred thousand members of AA at retreats meetings and conventions and personally discussed problems with more than ten thousand alcoholics He produced fourteen extremely popular books called the Golden Books under the pen name Father John Doe along with other books and recordings When he joined Alcoholics Anonymous in 1943 he became the first Roman Catholic priest to get sober in the newly formed movement An alcoholic and drug addict he had spent the previous ten years being removed from parish after parish as his drinking and addiction to downers got out of control over and over again He taught the spirituality of imperfection drawing from St Threse of Lisieuxs Little Way and St Augustines teaching of God as Truth Itself the forgiving God who touches us in our fallenness in acts of sudden psychological insight in which our whole perspective on life undergoes sweeping positive quantum changes Over and over he calmed peoples fear of God by reminding them that perfection was a myth and that no human being could do it all He was one of the most creative and interesting American Catholic theologians of his era Addicted to Rehab Allison McKim, 2017-07-03 After decades of the American war on drugs and relentless prison expansion political officials are finally challenging mass incarceration Many point to an apparently promising solution to reduce the prison population addiction treatment In Addicted to Rehab Bard College sociologist Allison McKim gives an in depth and innovative ethnographic account of two such rehab programs for women one located in the criminal justice system and one located in the private healthcare system two very different ways of defining and treating addiction McKim s book shows how addiction rehab reflects the race class and gender politics of the punitive turn As a result addiction has become a racialized category that has reorganized the link between punishment and welfare provision While reformers hope that treatment will offer an alternative to punishment and help women McKim argues that the framework of addiction further stigmatizes criminalized women and undermines our capacity to challenge gendered subordination Her study ultimately reveals a two tiered system bifurcated by race and class
