The twentieth century American author was catapulted to fame after the publication of Renascence her first major work and a poem written while she was still a teenager. Millay's frank attitude toward sexuality along with immortal lines such as "My candle burns at both ends" solidified her reputation as the quintessential liberated woman of the Jazz Age. In this authoritative volume Timothy F. Jackson has compiled and annotated a new selection that represents the full range of her published work alongside previously unpublished manuscript excerpts, poems, prose, and correspondence. The poems appearing as they were printed in their first editions are complemented by Jackson's extensive illuminating notes which draw on archival sources and help situate her work in its historical and literary context. Two introductory essays, one by Jackson and the other by Millay's literary executor Holly Peppe, also help critically frame the poet's work.
