Counter Terrorism And Humanitarian Action:

Counter-terrorism and Humanitarian Action Sara Pantuliano, Overseas Development Institute (London, England). Humanitarian Policy Group, 2011 This HPG Policy Brief examines the impact of certain counter terrorism laws and other measures both international and national on humanitarian action It is based on a review of the literature a series of interviews with donors UN agencies and NGOs and a roundtable event organized with the Inter Agency Standing Committee IASC in February 2011 The Policy Brief begins by outlining the evolution and content of counter terrorism laws and their impact on donor policies and program funding It then discusses the implications for principled humanitarian action These are explored in greater detail in two case studies covering Somalia and Gaza

The Oxford Handbook of the International Law of Global Security Robin Geiß, Nils Melzer, 2021-02-16 Understanding the global security environment and delivering the necessary governance responses is a central challenge of the 21st century On a global scale the central regulatory tool for such responses is public international law But what is the state role and relevance of public international law in today's complex and highly dynamic global security environment Which concepts of security are anchored in international law How is the global security environment shaping international law and how is international law in turn influencing other normative frameworks The Oxford Handbook of the International Law of Global Security provides a ground breaking overview of the relationship between international law and global security It constitutes a comprehensive and systematic mapping of the various sub fields of international law dealing with global security challenges and offers authoritative guidance on key trends and debates around the relationship between public international law and global security governance This Handbook highlights the central role of public international law in an effective global security architecture and in doing so addresses some of the most pressing legal and policy challenges of our time The Handbook features original contributions by leading scholars and practitioners from a wide range of professional and disciplinary backgrounds reflecting the fluidity of the concept of global security and the diversity of scholarship in this area

Humanitarian Action and Terrorism : Ingrid A. Macdonald, 2017-11-15 The proliferation of designated terrorist groups in majority Muslim countries has greatly affected civilian populations Humanitarian workers and assets have been targeted by terrorist groups through the use of violent methods This study addresses the state of observable perceptions towards humanitarian organisations and workers among local populations It concludes by proposing the humanitarian cube which is a dynamic new tool for strengthening understanding and actions in response to local perceptions

Counter-Terrorism Financing and Iran Zeynab Malakouti Khah, 2023-10-20 This book blends doctrinal and empirical research to examine the phenomenon of counter terrorism financing at the level of both international and Iranian national law The work discusses the legitimacy fairness and effectiveness of the international counter terrorism financing framework and then examines to what extent Iran has implemented it The main focuses of the book are on the criminalisation of terrorism financing financial regulations as preventive measures applied to the sectors at risk of terrorism financing including the formal financial system the informal financial system and the non profit organisations and the international and unilateral sanctions imposed on individuals and entities who support terrorist acts terrorists and terrorist organisations Given that terrorism and terrorism financing are socio legal political and economic phenomena in nature the book approaches the problem of terrorism financing from an interdisciplinary perspective exploring the relationship between the characteristics of Iran as a state recognised for supporting non state militant actors NSMAs some of which are designated as terrorist by some countries Empirical research includes documentary fieldwork in Iran with the collection of original and primary materials that have not previously been analysed The book also adopts a policy transfer approach using the rules and regulations of the United Kingdom Presenting a non Western perspective on counter terrorism financing the book will be essential reading for students researchers and policy makers working in the area of financial crime

Extremisms in Africa Volume 2 Alain Tschudin, Craig Moffat, Stephen Buchanan-Clarke, Susan Russell, Lloyd Coutts, 2019-06-18 Over the past two decades the rapid emergence and spread of both local and transnational extremist organisations has become a primary source of insecurity in Africa Extremist organisations represent the fluid and variable nature of conflict systems today and are at the heart of some of Africa's most enduring conflicts Moreover the inability of African states to contain the threat of extremism or of heavy handed security responses has led to the loss of thousands of lives displaced millions and deeply impacted the continent's democratisation and development goals This is the second anthology published by Good Governance Africa GGA on the topic of extremism and political violence in Africa Extremisms in Africa one of the first anthologies of its kind on this topic to be authored and published on the African continent provided an account of how extremist groups arose in Africa and the various ways in which they have harnessed their global agendas to local conflict dynamics and structural challenges enabling them to exploit the grievances of individuals and communities for their cause This anthology Extremisms in Africa Volume 2 looks forward giving special attention to the ways in which emergent trends global geopolitics and conflict dynamics merge to impact upon the African continent To this end we have sought to engage diverse topics ranging from ecological concerns surrounding climate change and migration the implications of such human movement for modern day trafficking and slavery and the roles of women and youth State responses to extremism on the African continent are not uniform the capacity of individual states to detect identify police investigate and prosecute is highly variable At the most fundamental level extremism is ripe to arise in contexts where governments are failing especially when democracy is on the wane This anthology identifies some of the most pressing challenges in addressing extremism today and provides chapters that could offer actionable policy insights to governments and civil society Given the nature of Africa's geopolitical landscape state and security services alone cannot prevent extremism It will take a whole of society approach where government civil society academia communities families and individuals collaborate to better understand the local dynamics of recruitment and radicalisation and develop context specific strategies in response This anthology will hopefully provide practitioners with improved insight into some of the key challenges and potential solutions in preventing extremism while also being of interest to the general reader

The Politics of Humanitarian Technology Katja Lindskov Jacobsen, 2015-06-05 This book offers a detailed exploration of three examples of humanitarian uses of new technology employing key theoretical insights from Foucault We are currently seeing a humanitarian turn to new digital technologies such as biometrics remote sensing and surveillance drones However such humanitarian uses of new technology have not always produced beneficial results for those at the receiving end and have sometimes exposed the subjects of assistance to additional risks and insecurities Engaging with key insights from the work of Foucault combined with selected concepts from the Science and Technology Studies literature this book produces an analytical framework that opens up the analysis to details of power and control at the level of materiality that are often ignored in liberal histories of war and modernity Whereas Foucault details the design of prisons factories schools etc this book is original in its use of his work in that it uses these key insights about the details of power embedded in material design but shifts the attention to the technologies and attending forms of power that have been experimented with in the three humanitarian endeavours presented in the book In doing so the book provides new information about aspects of liberal humanitarianism that contemporary critical analyses have largely neglected This book will be of interest to students of humanitarian studies peace and conflict studies critical security studies and IR in general

The State of the World's Refugees 2012 Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees, 2012-05-31 This publication provides an accessible overview of key developments related to internal and cross border displacement of people throughout the world As well as analysing policy issues it provides a wealth of statistical tables graphs and maps

The Charity of Nations Ian Smillie, Larry Minear, 2004 First world governments disburse considerably more humanitarian assistance than NGOs yet increasingly what is claimed to be charity has more than a tinge of self interest commercial enterprise about it This book highlights the ambiguities confusion argues for reform to the humanitarian structure

Terrorism and the UN Jane Boulden, Thomas G. Weiss, 2004-03-16 Understanding the UN in light of the new global realities created by terrorism is key to discovering solutions for the world s security problems especially now that the UN has itself become a target of terror Terrorism and the UN considers how the organization s role in dealing with terrorism has been shaped by the international system and how events such as September 11 and the American intervention in Iraq have reoriented its approach Including assessments of both the international context and the internal workings of the UN this volume addresses the impact of September 11 on the UN s concern for the rights and security of states relative to those of individuals the changing attitudes of various Western powers toward multilateral vs unilateral approaches to international problems and the implications of these developments for international law The volume also focuses closely on the UN s ability to prevent and react to terrorism by examining possible roles the UN can play in suppressing the political economy of terrorism as well as more proactive strategies for addressing the root causes of terrorism Book jacket

Humanitarian Response Index 2008 DARA (Development Assistance Research Associates), 2008-11-18 The purpose of this annual report is to develop an index of good humanitarian donorship that will measure donors effectiveness against their commitment to the Principles and Good Practise of Humanitarian Donorship The index is intended to help the international donor community to better understand its strengths and weaknesses in order to improve the efficiency and quality of its donor activities and initiatives The index is also expected to raise awareness about the increasingly important role of humanitarian action and associated good practices beyond its current core constituencies We believe that this report offers significant potential to improve the quality of humanitarian aid benefiting those most affected by both man made and natural disasters

Leaving No One Behind Matthew Easton, 2016 This study explores elements critical to effective humanitarian assistance and protection It details global trends that shape humanitarian needs risks and response expectations It situates the study in the context of concurrent global agendas and recent trends in the dialogue on humanitarian effectiveness The findings are organized around 12 elements of effectiveness It concludes with five overarching shifts in mindset and approach that will contribute to strengthening humanitarian effectiveness as well as advancing areas of shared interests with other major change areas such as sustainable development peacebuilding climate change and gender equality The study puts forward a model that can be used to chart progress in advancing humanitarian effectiveness over time
