Criminology 1st Edition:

Index of NLM serial titles. 1972 v. 1 | [1st ed.] ,1972 An Introduction to Criminology Willem Adriaan Bongers,1979 Communicating Risk Jonathan Crichton,Christopher N. Candlin,Arthur S. Firkins,2016-01-05 We live in world increasingly shaped by risk a fact underscored by recent events in the financial markets science and technology environmental policy and biosecurity law enforcement and criminal justice Risk assessment has become a central concern of governments organisations and the professions and the communication of risk is a crucial part of professional work Exploring how risk is discursively constructed across these domains is therefore central to our understanding of how professional practice affects people s lives Communicating Risk takes up this challenge with contributions from leading researchers and practitioners that examine key issues of risk communication across diverse professional domains Monthly Bulletin St. Louis Public Library,1930 Teachers bulletin vol 4 issued as part of v 23 no 9 2002 Year Book, Australia , An Introduction to Criminology W. A. Bongers,2015-07-30 This book first published in 1936 provides an introduction to the various branches of criminology including criminal psychology and criminology as an applied science This title also provides an overview of some of the different criminological schools and theories This book will be of interest to students of criminology and sociology Law Books in Print: Subject index A-I ,1997 Organising White-Collar and Corporate Crimes Nicholas Lord,Michael Levi,2025-03-04 This book explores how we can re constitute our approach to analysing and empirically investigating the organisation of white collar and corporate crimes with a view to building fuller theoretical and empirical accounts The work demonstrates how knowledge can be produced and systematised within a conceptual and analytical framework concerned with understanding how such crimes are organised why they are organised as they are who gets involved in them as primary offenders and as facilitators and the real factors that shape these organisational dynamics over time in particular contexts and under varying conditions In doing so the book examines the distal far off and proximal close social arrangements and relations that create and shape emergent white collar crime opportunities and their structures It also investigates the mechanisms relationships processes and conditions that are necessary for the commission or the unfolding of white collar crimes or for their non commission How these are contingently connected to particular contexts is explored The work also considers the people who collaborate connect and otherwise associate whether ephemerally or for longer periods in the pursuit of criminal goals and the actual or potential skills expertise and abilities of these people to accomplish or resist particular behaviours that are required of them Finally the book assesses the human social cultural and material antecedents that enable white collar crimes to flourish or fade The work will be of particular interest to scholars theorising about and empirically investigating white collar and corporate crimes or seeking to understand empirical approaches to analysing such behaviours and other types of crime It is primarily aimed at critical social scientists including criminologists and sociologists as well as socio legal business economics and political studies scholars The work will also be of interest to practitioners and policymakers keen to learn more about how and why these crimes are organised as they are
