Jacques Derrida in his essays "Structure, Sign and Play in the Discourse of the Human Sciences" and "Différance"

Issam El Masmodi, 2019-12-13 Essay from the year 2019 in the subject Philosophy Philosophy of the 20th century Sultan Moulay Sliman University language English abstract This paper tends to deal mainly with Derrida's both essays of Structure Sign and Play in the Discourse of the Human Sciences and Différance It tries to show some of his key ideas and his outstanding status in the postmodern school of thought in the light of his aforementioned essays The first things that come to our minds when we hear the name of Jacques Derrida are Deconstruction Différance Post structuralism Post modernism Writing and Différance Of Grammatology and so on This illustrates that we are already familiar with Derrida However the majority of people complain about Derrida's complexity of his writings as well as the difficulty of translating his works One of the most illustrative examples is the preface of Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak to Derrida's Of Grammatology in which she states when the preface is being written by someone other than the author the situation is yet further complicated A pretense at writing before a text that one must have read before the preface can be written Spivak's statement is a real example of the inseparable relationship between reading and writing Reading is breathing in whereas writing is breathing out Alan Bass a translator of Derrida suggests that the difficulty to read Derrida is not a question of his style of writing but rather Derrida challenges the way we are used to read Besides Alan Bass compares the translator of Derrida to a psychoanalyst in the sense that the translator must understand the syntax and lexicon of the original text in order to transform it through his own language This is quite analogous with the attempt of the psychoanalyst to translate the language of dreams into a latent language

Many glimpses into what might be called library philosophy are scattered throughout the literatures of library history and library and information science but none has coalesced as yet Conversely theories relative to the operation of libraries rather than relative to why their operations are necessary in the first place are exceedingly abundant At the heart of both resides function On the one hand the concept of a library reflects a rational social process its genesis and survival the result of each succeeding generation embracing the same core values as the one before At the same time practice in the library is bounded by both the experiences and expectations of the public and our choice and treatment of topic in our scholarly and professional literature Not surprisingly fundamental misunderstandings are shared among public scholar and librarian about what the library is and why it exists Adapting the work of Kenneth Boulding Charles Osburn presents a cogent well substantiated explanation of why the library refuses to cede its position as a cultural icon and how it not only continues but flourishes throughout the trials and errors of civilization Back cover Neoliberalism and Globalization in Africa Joseph Mensah,2008-11-15 Discusses Africa s involvement in contemporary neoliberal globalization from a social economic political and cultural perspective This book describes the unbalanced structure of global wealth and power between Africa and the rest of the world Emerging Research + Design Kate Wingert-Playdon,Herman Neuckermans,2007 Plaridel ,2014
