Bessie Head Huma Ibrahim,1996 One of the foremost African writers of our time who dispelled the silence between colonial and feminist discourses by talking back Bessie Head at last gets her due in this first book length comprehensive study of her work This book locates Head s unquestionable importance in the canon of African literature Author Huma Ibrahim argues that unless we are able to look at the merging of women s sexual and linguistic identity with their political and gendered identity the careful configurations created in Head s work will elude us Ibrahim offers a series of thoughtful readings informed by feminist diasporan postcolonial and poststructuralist insights and concerns She identifies a theme she calls exilic consciousness the desire to belong and traces its manifestations through each phase of Head s work showing how women s talk a marginalized commodity in the construction of southern Africa is differently embodied and evaluated Bessie Head s works are frequently featured in courses in African literature third world literature and fiction writing but there is little critical material on them Ibrahim offers readings of Head s novels When Rain Clouds Gather Maru and A Question of Power as well as the collections Tales of Tenderness and Power A Collector of Treasures A Woman Alone Autobiographical Writings and The Cardinals the histories Serowe Village of the Rain Wind and A Bewitched Crossroad and her letters to Robert Vigne collected in A Gesture of Belonging In Head s exploration of oppressed people especially women and those in exile Ibrahim finds startling insights into institutional power relations Head not only subverts Western hegemonic notions of the third world woman but offers a critique of postcoloniality Bessie Head and the Trauma of Exile Joshua Agbo,2021-06-17 This book investigates themes of exile and oppression in Southern Africa across Bessie Head s novels and short fiction An exile herself arriving in Botswana as a South African refugee Bessie Head s fiction serves as an important example of African exile literature This book argues that Head s characters are driven to exile as a result of their socio political ambivalence while still in South Africa and that this sense of discomfort follows them to their new lives Investigating themes of trauma and identity politics across colonial and post colonial contexts this book also addresses the important theme of black on black prejudice and hostility which is often overlooked in studies of Head s work Covering Head s shorter fiction as well as her major novels When Rain Clouds Gather 1969 Maru 1971 A Question of Power 1973 Serowe Village of the Rain Wind 1981 and A Bewitched Crossroads An African Saga 1984 this book will be of interest to researchers of African literature and postcolonial history Bushmen in the Tourist Imaginary Roie Thomas,2016-12-14 This book is a semantic and semiotic analysis of tourism texts that represent specific groups of San or Bushmen in modern Botswana and is framed by postcolonial theory post tourism and resistance theories Critically the book demonstrates the power that both written and visual language can have upon consumers of texts It provides a case study of neo colonial exploitation and conversely reveals the efficacy of self representation for tourist consumption with an increasing number of San offering alternatives to an entrenched ethnic hegemony effecting gradual political and social recognition and autonomy As such the book is written in a spirit of optimism for the burgeoning self determination of a long marginalised group

Of War and Women, Oppression and Optimism Eustace Palmer, 2008 Palmer then on African women novelists A detailed and absorbing examination of African feminist theory leads to a discussion of novels by Bessie Head Buchi Emecheta Mariama Ba Nawal El Saadawi and Tsitsi Dangerembga showing the differing ways in which these novelists explore the condition of the African woman and considering the established as well as new narrative conventions they use to give voice to their concerns Palmer is particularly impressive in the section where he deals with those novelists established as well as recent who deal with social comment a perennial concern of the African novel and one that is even manifest today His analyses of Achebe's Anthills of the Savannah Okri's The Famished Road Cheney Coker's The Last Harmattan of Alusine Dunbar and Benjamin Kwakye's The Sun By Night are particularly illuminating as he shows how these novelists bend the novel form or use new techniques to articulate their own perceptions of recent history

And Wrote My Story Anyway Barbara Boswell, 2020-09-01 Critically examines influential novels in English by eminent black female writers Studying these writers key engagements with nationalism race and gender during apartheid and the transition to democracy Barbara Boswell traces the ways in which black women's fiction criticality interrogates narrow ideas of nationalism She examines who is included and excluded while producing alternative visions for a more just South African society This is an erudite analysis of ten well known South African writers spanning the apartheid and post apartheid era Miriam Tlali Loretta Ngcobo Farida Karodia Agnes Sam Sindiwe Magona Zo Wicomb Rayda Jacobs Yvette Christians Kagiso Lesego Molepe and Zukiswa Wanner Boswell argues that black women's fiction could and should be read as a subversive site of knowledge production in a setting which for centuries denied black women's voices and intellects Reading their fiction as theory for the first time these writers works are placed in sustained conversation with each other producing an arc of feminist criticism that speaks forcefully back to the abuse of a racist white dominated patriarchal power

Living on a Horizon Desiree Lewis, 2007 Bessie Head's writing illustrates a fusion of styles, subjects, and philosophical and literary influences. This book explores this range by drawing both on postcolonial and feminist theories. Focusing on Head's acute sensitivity to social and historical experiences, the book deals with Head's use of myths and trans-cultural fictions that convey knowledge about her immediate world and the historical domains beyond it. In addition, Bessie Head's autobiographical vision generates an exploration of personal injustices as well as the processes they signal. Hinduism and eastern philosophy were central to Head's philosophical vision, and the book shows how this vision allowed her to explore existential questions and spiritual concerns in innovative and unexpected ways. By using language auto-referentially and symbolically by drawing on myths and by developing abundantly textured metaphors, Head produces fictions that manifest the notions of freedom and serenity she urgently endorses and that are as concerned with challenging the realities she confronts as they are with utopian imagining.

Contemporary Literary Criticism Jean C. Stine, Sharon R. Gunton, 1983. Entries include critical commentary, brief biographical information, a portrait when available, a list of principal works, and may also include a further reading section.

Writers and Social Thought in Africa Wale Adebani, 2017-10-02. Social theory and social theorizing about Africa has largely ignored African literature. However, because writers are some of the continent's finest social thinkers, they have produced and continue to produce works which constitute potential sources for the analysis of social thought and for constructing social theory in and beyond the continent. This comprehensive collection examines the relationship between African literature and African social thought. It explores the evolution and aesthetics of social thought in African fiction and African writers' conceptions of power and authority, legitimacy, history, and modernity, gender, and sexuality, culture, epistemology, globalization, and change and continuity in Africa. This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Contemporary African Studies.

Black Writers Sharon Malinowski, 1994. This text presents comprehensive coverage of more than 400 of the most studied black authors from the Harlem Renaissance, social and political activists, and foreign black writers of interest to American audiences.

Annals of Borno, 1987

The Tragic Life Cecil Anthony Abrahams, 1990

Unisa English Studies University of South Africa. Department of English, 1994

Female African Writers and Social Criticism Ifeyinwa Grace Achufusi, 1991

An Invincible Summer Tommie Lee Jackson, 2001. The female authors surveyed in this study: Mariama Ba, Simone Schwartz-Bart, Buchi Emecheta, Beryl Gilroy, Zora Neale Hurston, Paule Marshall, Toni Morrison, and Alice Walker are all linked both by their collective use of the trope of abandonment in their literature, symbolic of the Diasporic condition of black people, and by their existentialist depiction of characters who, in contrast with the bad faith of others before the void, are endowed with that special grace in the face of futile suffering.
