Current Trends in Contrastive Linguistics María de los Ángeles Gómez González, J. Lachlan Mackenzie, Elsa M. González Álvarez, 2008-12-17 This book examines the contribution of various recent developments in linguistics to contrastive analysis The articles range across a broad gamut of languages with most attention going to the languages of Europe They show how advances in theory and computer technology are together impacting the field of contrastive linguistics Part I focuses from a broadly functional cognitive viewpoint on the close link with typology stressing the importance of embedding the treatment of grammatical categories in their contexts of use Part II turns to methodological issues exploring the enormous potential offered by parallel computer accessible corpora to contrastive linguistics and to enhancing the testability authenticity and empirical adequacy of cross linguistic studies Part III is concerned with contrastive semantics ranging from individual items to entire grammatical constructions and shows how meanings are coupled to language specific cognitive strategies and even to cultural differences in subjective awareness and the fashioning of personal identity Corpus Studies in Contrastive

Linguistics Stefania Marzo, Kris Heylen, Gert De Sutter, 2012 Contrastive Linguistics like other linguistic disciplines is becoming more and more data oriented relying increasingly on the statistical analysis of corpus data to reveal and investigate the similarities and dissimilarities between languages This title illustrates this trend with a representative sample of contrastive linguistic case studies Conjunctive Markers of Contrast in English and French Maïté

Dupont, 2021-06-15 Situated at the interface between corpus linguistics and Systemic Functional Linguistics this volume focuses on conjunctive markers expressing contrast in English and French The frequency and placement patterns of the markers are analysed using large corpora of texts from two written registers newspaper editorials and research articles The corpus study revisits the long standing but largely unsubstantiated claim that French requires more explicit markers of cohesive conjunction than English and shows that the opposite is in fact the case Novel insights into the placement preferences of English and French conjunctive markers are provided by a new approach to theme and rheme that attaches more importance to the rheme than previous studies. The study demonstrates the significant benefits of a combined corpus and Systemic Functional Linguistics approach to the cross-linguistic analysis of cohesion. Meaning Through Language Contrast Katarzyna Jaszczolt, Ken Turner, 2003. In four parts, this title deals with grammaticalization, metaphor in contrast, cross-cultural pragmatics and speech acts, and the semantics-pragmatics boundary theory and applications. Papers and Studies in Contrastive Linguistics, 1994. Vol. 1 contains papers delivered at the 2d Karpacz Conference on Contrastive Linguistics 1971. Towards a History of Linguistics in Poland E.F.K. Koerner, Aleksander Szwedek, 2001-12-04. Apart from the names of Jan Baudouin de Courtenay (1845-1929), Mikołaj Kruszewski (1851-1887) and later Jerzy Kuryłowicz (1895-1978), Polish linguists and Polish linguistics generally have been little known in the West. The first two were mentioned with approval by Saussure in an unpublished paper, and this reference was picked up by Roman Jakobson and others many years later. Kuryłowicz, for his part, made himself well known in the West through his important work as an Indo-Europeanist, even Semiticist, and as a general linguist. The present volume is a first attempt to broaden the perspectives on the Polish contribution to linguistics both inside and outside of Poland during the past centuries. Specialists in their respective fields contributed chapters on the origins and development of general linguistics, Z. W. Sik applied linguistics, F. Grucza lexicology, T. Piotrowski dialectology, St. Gogolewski and onomastics, S. Gala. Followed by five chapters presenting the theories of the arguably most remarkable Polish linguistic thinkers from Baudouin de Courtenay, A. Adamska, Sa. Aciak, Kruszewski, F. M. Berezin, and Kuryłowicz, W. Smoczyński to Mikołaj Rudnicki (1881-1978) and Ludwik Zabrocki (1907-1977), both written by J. Bączkowski. Detailed individual bibliographies, a full index of names with life dates of Polish linguists from the Renaissance to the present day, and a thorough index of subjects and terms make this volume an important reference tool for anyone wishing to acquaint himself with the rich heritage of Polish linguistic thought. Sociolinguistics Ulrich Ammon, 2005. Contrastive Linguistics Wenguo Pan, Tham Wai Mun, 2007-07-10. Contrastive Linguistics is the first book written by a linguist from mainland China on the histories and principles of comparing and contrasting Chinese and Western languages, specifically English. From Wilhelm von Humboldt's initial study in comparative linguistics to the present day, traditional scholarship in contrastive linguistics has taken a Western perspective and shown how foreign languages relate to the Indo-European language family. However, such a view has a limited scope, and there is an alternative history to contrastive linguistics. This book is an attempt by Professor Wenguo Pan to redress the balance in contrastive linguistics, comparing Western languages to Chinese rather than vice versa. He provides a survey of contrastive linguistics in China throughout the past century and aims to open a window for the world to see what the new generations of Chinese linguists are doing in this exciting field and to start a dialogue between scholars of different backgrounds and linguistic traditions. Contrastive Linguistics looks at the history of this discipline both in Europe and in China. Professor Pan presents a survey of the historical, philosophical, and methodological foundations of the discipline but also examines its scope in relation to general comparative anthropological and applied linguistics This book will be of interest to academics interested in a new perspective on contrastive linguistics or Chinese linguistics Languages in Contrast Karin Aijmer, Bengt Altenberg, Mats Johansson, 1996 Contrastive

Perspective Lou Burnard, 2000 This selection of edited papers from the third international conference on Teaching and Language Corpora held at Keble College Oxford in 1998 bears witness to the continued expansion of this interdisciplinary field The use of computer corpora is no longer seen as an end in itself but rather as an indispensable tool in language pedagogy both by providing better grounded decisions about the topics to be taught and by facilitating the production of better teaching materials Computer corpora also encourage a shift towards learner centred exploratory teaching practice which are shown to be effective in a wide variety of contexts Language Function, Structure, and Change Wieslaw
