

Preparing a Journal Article Critique

I. What is an article critique?

- A critical analysis of a study published in a peer-reviewed journal.

II. How do I format an article review?

- Format and organization of the critique varies according to the professor's preference. Review the assignment description in the course syllabus or ask the professor for formatting guidelines.

III. What does an article critique include?

A) A citation of the reviewed article in APA format

Example

Mithaug, D. E. & Mar, D. K. (1980). The relation between choosing and working prevocational tasks in two severely retarded young adults. Journal of Applied Behavior Analysis, 13, 177-182.

B) A one-paragraph summary of the article

- Fewer than 200 words
- Briefly describe experimental question (1 sentence)
- Provide concise description of the methods used (2-6 sentences)
- Discuss results/findings (2 sentences)

C) A description of the study's participants

- Include number of participants/sample size/number of groups used
- Provide diagnoses or pertinent characteristics of participants
- Briefly describe participant selection & assignment to condition(s)

D) Identification and description of the relationship between the independent and dependent variables within the study

- Define independent variable(s)
- Define dependent variable(s)
- Discuss if a functional relationship exists between the independent and dependent variables
- Discuss possible confounding variables within the study

E) A description of the research design

- Identify the design as a group- or single-subject study
- Describe the experimental design (e.g., ABA reversal design, alternating treatment design, or multiple baseline design)

F) Article strengths & weaknesses (Helpful questions to ask yourself while evaluating the article's 4 main sections)

Marxism Against Postmodernism in Educational Theory Mike Cole, Dave Hill, Peter McLaren, 2002-12-11

Postmodernism has become the orthodoxy in educational theory. It heralds the end of grand theories like Marxism and liberalism, scorning any notion of a united feminist challenge to patriarchy, of a united anti-racist struggle, and of a united working class movement against capitalist exploitation and oppression. For postmodernists, the world is fragmented, history is ended, and all struggles are local and particularistic. Written by internationally renowned British and American educational theorists, Marxism Against Postmodernism in Educational Theory is a substantially revised edition of the original 1999 work.

Postmodernism in Educational Theory critically examines the infusion of postmodernism and theories of postmodernity into educational theory, policy, and research. The writers argue that postmodernism provides neither a viable educational politics nor the foundation for effective radical educational practice and offer an alternative politics of human resistance which puts the challenge to capitalism firmly on the agenda of educational theory, politics, and practice.

Resources for Nursing

Research Cynthia Clamp, Stephen Gough, 1999-09-20 Fully revised and updated, the third edition of this invaluable bibliography of sources of literature for nurses includes over 2760 entries, 64 per cent of which are new. This comprehensive yet concise guide is designed for convenience and ease of use and covers all aspects of nursing and allied health research with accessible and informative entries compiled within three sections. The first covers the process of literature searching, libraries, and tools, print and electronic, for accessing literature. In the second, methods of inquiry are presented. The final section discusses issues surrounding nursing research. The book includes an extended section on electronic sources as well as many web site addresses and its design.
