The Handbook of Journal Publishing Sally Morris, Ed Barnas, Douglas LaFrenier, Margaret Reich, 2013-02-21 The Handbook of Journal Publishing is a comprehensive reference work written by experienced professionals covering all aspects of journal publishing both online and in print Journals are crucial to scholarly communication but changes in recent years in the way journals are produced financed and used make this an especially turbulent and challenging time for journal publishers and for authors readers and librarians The Handbook offers a thorough guide to the journal publishing process from editing and production through marketing sales and fulfilment with chapters on management finances metrics copyright and ethical issues It provides a wealth of practical tools including checklists sample documents worked examples alternative scenarios and extensive lists of resources which readers can use in their day to day work Between them the authors have been involved in every aspect of journal publishing over several decades and bring to the text their experience working for a wide range of publishers in both the not for profit and commercial sectors Multidimensional Journal Evaluation Stefanie Haustein, 2012-04-26 Scientific communication depends primarily on publishing in journals The most important indicator to determine the influence of a journal is the Impact Factor Since this factor only measures the average number of citations per article in a certain time window it can be argued that it does not reflect the actual value of a periodical This book defines five dimensions which build a framework for a multidimensional method of journal evaluation The author is winner of the Eugene Garfield Doctoral Dissertation Scholarship 2011 Journal of the Medical Library Association, 2005 Educational Research James B. Schreiber, Kimberly Asner-Self, 2011-08-24 Researchers finally have a resource that focuses on the research question providing them with a unique approach that will help in the field Key Ideas sections presented in each chapter act as an organising mechanism and look at the big picture of that chapter Many of the writing activities are open ended questions that allow them to write questions or what they are thinking about the topic at that point In Text Activities ask them to write down what they are working on such as a research question review of literature or potential sample Case study examples are also integrated throughout to demonstrate how decisions are made and how they affect everything in a study This enables researchers to create the most effective studies
