Evaluation A Systematic Approach 7th Edition:

Evaluation Peter H. Rossi, Mark W. Lipsey, Howard E. Freeman, 2003-10-14 Since Peter H. Rossi, Mark W. Lipsey, and Howard E. Freeman first published Evaluation A Systematic Approach more than 90,000 readers have considered it the premier text on how to design, implement, and appraise social programs through evaluation. In this completely revised Seventh Edition, authors Rossi and Lipsey include the latest techniques and approaches to evaluation, as well as guidelines to tailor evaluations to fit programs and social contexts. With decades of hands-on experience conducting evaluations, the authors provide scores of examples to help students understand how evaluators deal with various critical issues. They include a glossary of key terms and concepts, making this the most comprehensive and authoritative evaluation text available. Thoroughly revised, the Seventh Edition now includes substantially more attention to outcome measurement. Lengthy discussions of program theory, including a section about detecting program effects and interpreting their practical significance. An augmented and updated discussion of major evaluation designs. A detailed exposition of meta-analysis as an approach to the synthesis of evaluation studies. Alternative approaches to evaluation. Examples of successful evaluations. Discussions of the political and social contexts of evaluation.

Evaluation Peter H. Rossi, Howard E. Freeman, Mark W. Lipsey, 1999 The 6th edition of Evaluation includes the most up-to-date techniques and approaches available in the field of implementing and appraising social programmes. The 6th edition has more of a focus on diagnostic procedures in evaluation.

Evaluation Peter Henry Rossi, Mark W. Lipsey, Gary T. Henry, 2018-11-27 Evaluation A Systematic Approach is the bestselling comprehensive introduction to the field of programme evaluation, covering the range of evaluation research activities used in appraising the design, implementation, effectiveness, and efficiency of social programmes. This Eighth Edition includes a new practical chapter on planning an evaluation.

Evaluation Peter Henry Rossi, 2004 Relied on by over 90,000 readers as the text on how to design, implement, and appraise the utility of social programs through the use of evaluation methods, Evaluation 7th Edition has been completely revised to include the latest techniques and approaches to evaluation, as well as guidelines for how evaluations should be tailored to fit programs and social contexts. Plus throughout this new edition, there is more focus on evaluation diagnostic procedures. New to this Edition: The four chapters on impact assessment have been completely revised to give more attention to outcome measurement.

Evaluation Theory, Models, and Applications Daniel L. Stufflebeam, Chris L. S. Coryn, 2014-09-26 The golden standard evaluation reference text. Now in its second edition, Evaluation Theory, Models, and Applications is the vital text on evaluation models, perfect for classroom use as a textbook and as a professional evaluation reference. The book begins with an overview of the evaluation field and program evaluation standards and proceeds to cover the most widely used evaluation approaches. With new evaluation designs and the inclusion of the latest literature from the field, this Second Edition is an essential update for professionals and students who want to stay current. Understanding and choosing evaluation approaches is critical to many professions, and Evaluation

International Perspectives on Evaluation Standards Craig Russon, Gabrielle Russon, 2005-02-11 Prior to 1995 there were fewer than half a dozen regional and national evaluation organizations around the world Today there are more than fifty attesting to a growing interest in the practice of program evaluation internationally Many of these new organizations have undertaken efforts to develop their own standards or to modify existing sets most typically the Program Evaluation Standards of the Joint Committee on Standards for Educational Evaluation for use in their own cultural context Following two introductory chapters one a conceptual overview and the second a history of the development and revisions of the Program Evaluation Standards this issue documents standards development efforts in three different settings Western Europe Africa and Australasia In addition because nongovernmental organizations and governments have entered the standard setting business other chapters describe standards development activities by the European Commission and CARE International The content points to the challenge of formalizing standards for program evaluation given cross cultural differences in values and to the continuing challenges related to implementing voluntary standards This is the 104th issue of the quarterly journal New Directions for Evaluation Congress and Program Evaluation Clinton T. Brass, Blas Nunez-Neto, Erin D. Williams, 2008 Program evaluations can play an important role in public policy debates and in oversight of government programs potentially affecting decisions about program design operation and funding One technique that has received significant recent attention is the randomised controlled trial RCT There are also many other types of evaluation including the observational and qualitative designs 21st Century Sociology: A Reference Handbook Clifton D. Bryant, Dennis L. Peck, 2006-11-17 21st Century Sociology A Reference Handbook provides a concise forum through which the vast array of knowledge accumulated particularly during the past three decades can be organized into a single definitive resource The two volumes of this Reference Handbook focus on the corpus of knowledge garnered in traditional areas of sociological inquiry as well as document the general orientation of the newer and currently emerging areas of sociological inquiry Program Evaluation in a Complex Organizational System: Lessons from Cooperative Extension Marc T. Braverman, 2008 This issue of New Directions for Evaluation focuses on evaluation in complex organizations The themes that are examined the mainstreaming of evaluation within organizations the growth of evaluation capacity and the use of evaluation to promote organizational learning are relevant for evaluators who operate in environments marked by multiple organizational levels varied funding streams divergent purposes for evaluative information and numerous stakeholders and organizational partners The national Cooperative Extension System serves as a recurring case study that links the topics together Cooperative Extension is a system of institutions that includes every state s land grant universities the U S Department of Agriculture and local country governments The linkages across professional communities and distinct institutions create a highly complex environment presenting numerous challenges for evaluators working with community based programs Extension s experiences contribute to a rapidly evolving knowledge base about effective evaluation practice across a variety of organizational settings This is the 120th volume of the Jossey Bass quarterly thematic journal New Directions for Evaluation an official publication of the American Evaluation Association The journal publishes empirical methodological and theoretical works on all aspects of evaluation Each issue is devoted to a single topic with contributions solicited organized reviewed and edited by a guest editor or editors Issues may take any of several forms such as a series of related chapters a debate or a long article followed by brief critical commentaries Project Manager's Handbook David L.
