Narcopolis:

Narcopolis Jeet Thayil, 2012-04-12 Shortlisted for the Man Booker Prize Written in poetic and affecting prose Jeet Thayil's luminous debut novel charts the evolution of a great and broken metropolis across three decades A rich hallucinatory dream that captures Bombay in all its compelling squalor Narcopolis completely subverts and challenges the literary traditions for which the Indian novel is celebrated It is a book about drugs sex death perversion addiction love and God and has more in common in its subject matter with the work of William S Burroughs or Baudelaire than with that of the subcontinent's familiar literary lights Above all it is a fantastical portrait of a beautiful and damned generation in a nation about to sell its soul

Writing the Nation: Postcolonial Memory and National Identity in Contemporary Indian Writing in English, 2025-01-22 The struggle for national identity and the lingering impact of colonial rule has profoundly shaped modern Indian Writing in English The themes of postcolonialism and nationalism are deeply embedded in the narratives of Indian authors reflecting the complex relationship between colonial history and the evolving sense of nationhood This book Writing the Nation Postcolonial Memory and National Identity in Contemporary Indian Writing in English aims to explore how contemporary Indian writers engage with these themes offering critical insights into the socio political and cultural transformations of post independence India Through a close analysis of selected literary works this study examines how Indian authors reinterpret history reclaim indigenous identities and critique colonial legacies The chosen texts reveal how writers confront the trauma of colonization the partition of India and the rise of nationalist movements reflecting the multifaceted experiences of individuals and communities navigating a postcolonial world This exploration extends to how authors challenge Western narratives redefine cultural identities and present nuanced perspectives on patriotism and resistance Incorporating works by renowned writers such as Chitra Banerjee Divakaruni Jhumpa Lahiri H M Naqvi and others this book delves into the varied representations of colonial oppression freedom struggles and the complexities of national consciousness Each chapter offers a critical lens on how these narratives contribute to the broader discourse of postcolonial studies and nationalism in Indian literature This work is intended for students scholars and readers interested in understanding the intersections of literature history and identity in modern Indian Writing in English It seeks to deepen the appreciation of how literature serves as a powerful medium for reflecting on the past while imagining the future of a nation

The Writing of the Nation by Its Elite MK Raghavendra, 2021-07-15 This volume examines the idea of India as it emerges in the writing of its anglophone elite post 2000 Drawing on a variety of genres including fiction histories non fiction assessments economic political and business travel accounts and so on this book maps the explosion of English language writing in India after the economic liberalization and points to the nation's sense of its growing importance as a producer of culture From Ramachandra Guha to William Dalrymple from Arundhati Roy to Pankaj Mishra from Jhumpa Lahiri to Amitav Ghosh from Amartya Sen to Gurcharan Das from Barkha Dutt to Tarun Tejpal this investigation takes us from aesthetic imaginings of the nation to its fractured political fault lines the ideological predispositions of the writers often pointing to an asymmetrically constituted India A major intervention on how postcolonial India is written about and imagined in the anglophone world this book will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of cultural studies literature history and South Asian studies It will also be of interest to general readers with an inclination towards India and Indian writing

Language, Style and Variation in Contemporary Indian English Literary Texts Esterino Adami, 2022-09-30

Language Style and Variation in Contemporary Indian English Literary Texts is a volume which examines the linguistic and stylistic forms of Indian English in new fictional texts to explore the power of language to construct meaning express identity and convey ideology Specifically this study proposes the elaboration and application of postcolonial stylistics i e an interdisciplinary methodology that uses different disciplines such as literary linguistics and postcolonial studies as a critical lens to read contemporary Indian authors like Jeet Thayil Deepa Anappara Avni Doshi Tabish Khair and Megha Majumdar The linguistic fabric of their fiction is investigated in a series of case studies observing the stylistic rendition of a wide range of themes and tropes such as the representation of Otherness drug discourse lament and the senses which cumulatively portray aspects of the current Indian narrative scenario The book develops ideas growing out of several disciplines to reach a fuller understanding of cultural phenomena in the postcolonial context and by extension in the social world Writers of Indian Diaspora Bijender Singh, Protibha Mukherjee Sahukar, Surendra Kumar Sao, 2024-09-05 This anthology is a voluminous compendium of 37 unique and meticulously crafted chapters each analysing a separate text by a pioneering Indian diaspora writer with no repetition of authors or texts This enhances the analytical depth and diversity of this unique anthology Within these chapters a carefully curated and evocative array of diverse themes and concerns addressed by these writers unfolds offering a comprehensive exploration of the diasporic literary terrain Assimilation and acculturation in the host country as well as repatriation in the native country can be challenging issues for the immigrants who have lived abroad for many years These chapters attempt to elucidate the distinctive mosaic of themes motifs and perspectives embedded in the selected works of Indian diaspora writers Unlike similar anthologies this compilation is a painstaking granular exploration of the literary oeuvre of Indian diaspora writers highlighting an eclectic mix of genres and remarkable diaspora experiences In an era characterised by increased migration and cultural hybridity this anthology is an essential read for scholars researchers faculty members students and all connoisseurs of literature alike A History of the Indian Novel in English Ulka Anjaria, 2015-07-08 A History of the Indian Novel in English traces the development of the Indian novel from its beginnings in the late nineteenth century up until the present day Beginning with an extensive introduction that charts important theoretical contributions to the field this History includes extensive essays that shed light on the legacy of English in Indian writing Organized thematically these essays examine how English was made Indian by writers who used the language to address specifically Indian concerns Such concerns revolved around the question of what it means to be modern as well as how the novel could be used for anti colonial activism By the 1980s the Indian novel in English was a global phenomenon and India is now the third largest publisher of English language books Written by a host of leading scholars this History invites readers to question conventional accounts of India s literary history

The City Speaks Subashish Bhattacharjee, Goutam Karmakar, 2022-09-29 This book studies the significance and representation of the city in the writings of Indian poets graphic novelists and dramatists It demonstrates how cities give birth to social images perspectives and complexities and explores the ways in which cities and the characters in Indian literature coexist to form a larger literary framework of interpretations Drawing on the theoretical concepts of Western urban thinkers such as Henri Lefebvre Georg Simmel Walter Benjamin Edward Soja David Harvey and Diane Levy as well as South Asian thinkers such as Ashis Nandy Arjun Appadurai Vinay Lal and Ravi Sundaram the book projects against a seemingly monolithic and homogenous Western qualification of urban literatures and offers a truly unique and contentious presentation of Indian literature Unfolding the urban literary landscape of India the volume lays the groundwork for an urban studies approach to Indian literature It will be of great interest to scholars and students of literature especially Indian writing in English urban studies and South Asian studies
