O'Connor, 2003-11-14

This guide focuses on using Document Based Questions DBQs to challenge students to interpret primary sources such as letters diaries speeches and other historical records Challenge your students to interpret primary sources from American History such as letters diaries speeches and other historical records Students learn to analyze a wide variety of visual and graphic stimuli such as paintings photographs charts and graphs using Document Based Questions Containing sixteen different themes selected from major units that are covered in American History DBQs help to utilize many of the skills stressed by social studies teachers and are an excellent tool for assessing student progress The activities are geared primarily toward middle school students grades 6 8 but can be adapted easily for use by secondary students Document Based Questions in World History Charles Brady, Philip Roden, 2013 Curriculum, Instruction, and Assessment Sandra L. Stacki, Micki M. Caskey, Steven B. Mertens, 2020-05-04 This volume addresses the evolving needs of middle school students influenced by media technology immigration diversity political divisiveness and bullying It highlights the need for social emotional support and evolving educational practices in curriculum instruction and assessment to meet these changing realities Writing Instruction That Works Arthur N. Applebee, Judith A. Langer, 2015-04-25 Backed by solid research Writing Instruction That Works answers the following question What is writing instruction today and what can it be tomorrow This up to date comprehensive book identifies areas of concern for the ways that writing is being taught in todays secondary schools The authors offer far reaching direction for improving writing instruction that assist both student literacy and subject learning They provide many examples of successful writing practices in each of the four core academic subjects English mathematics science and social studies history along with guidance for meeting the Common Core standards The text also includes sections on Technology and the Teaching of Writing and English Language Learners Document-based Question Activities for Your World History Classroom Nickole Loman, 2017 Each DBQ activity has questions that create worldly connections to the present Includes complete instructions tips to improve scores reproducible documents with answer prompts a scoring rubric and sample student essay positions Helps students attain a better understanding of world history from early civilization through the Industrial Revolution Aligned to Common Core State Standards CCSS Teaching in a Globally-Connected World Ervin F. Sparapani, Pamela L. Ross McClain, 2016-07-29 This book examines the current social political economic and religious climate of the world makes projections for the future and then makes suggestions for what the contributors believe educators need to think about in order to adequately prepare young people to successfully navigate that future We live in a globally connected world and young people as they move into the future need to be prepared to live in that future Schools and teachers tend to focus on the present which is okay however schools and teachers must decide what is important to know in the present in order for young people to be successful in the future The responsibility of education today must be to prepare learners to live in an unknown future that is global and not be so focused on an uncertain present

Social Studies for Secondary Schools Alan J. Singer, 2014-10-08 Now in its 4th edition this popular text for secondary social studies methods courses integrates discussions of educational goals and the nature of history and social studies with ideas for organizing social studies curricula units lessons projects and activities A major theme throughout is that what teachers choose to teach and the way they teach reflect their broader understanding of society history and the purpose of social studies education Advocating an inquiry and activity based view of social studies teaching that respects the points of view of students and teachers and based in practice and experience it offers systematic support and open honest advice for new teachers Each chapter addresses a broad question about social studies education sub chapters begin with narrower questions that direct attention to specific educational issues Lesson ideas and materials in the book and online are especially designed to help new teachers to address common core learning standards to work in inclusive settings and to promote literacy and the use of technology in social studies classrooms Chapters include highlighted Learning Activities Teaching Activities and Classroom Activities designed to provoke discussion and illustrate different approaches to teaching social studies and conclude with recommendations for further reading and links to on line essays about related social studies topics Activities are followed by four categories Think it over Add your voice to the discussion Try it yourself and It s your classroom All of these are supported with online teaching material Designed for undergraduate and graduate pre service social studies methods courses this text is also useful for in service training programs as a reference for new social studies teachers and as a resource for experienced social studies educators who are engaged in rethinking their teaching practice New in the Fourth Edition Provides a number of new lesson ideas paired with online lesson plans and activity sheets in every chapter Takes a new focus on data driven standards based instruction especially in relation to the common core curriculum Addresses the interactive nature of learning in updated technology sections Reflects current trends in history education Includes more of what the author has learned from working teachers Offers a wealth of additional on line material linked to the text
