Humanitarian Aid and the European Union Irene Morlino,2026-04-29 This book critically examines the effectiveness of EU humanitarian aid delivery in the wake of multiple crises Focusing on four primary case studies Myanmar Lebanon Mozambique and Mali which present distinct crisis types complex human made and natural it reveals why the effectiveness of EU humanitarian aid programmes varies in relation to pre established objectives Drawing on extensive interviews and official documents from UN EU and NGO officials the book introduces an innovative multidimensional theoretical framework conceptualising effectiveness beyond goal attainment encompassing needs assessment the seamlessness of the policy cycle and the transition between humanitarian and development aid The book argues that EU humanitarian aid effectiveness is primarily influenced by institutional relational and political factors rather than by the type of crisis or funding gap In particular the attitudes of national authorities toward donors and implementing agents are the most decisive factors followed by the quality of coordination among donors and agents The book ultimately suggests that adopting a holistic resilience first approach that integrates humanitarian and long term development goals creating integrated funding instruments that enable comprehensive responses from the outset and fostering collegiality and formal and informal relationships among staff can lead to greater overall effectiveness This book is of key interest to scholars students and practitioners in EU foreign policy humanitarian aid development studies and more broadly to International Relations and policymakers

Management of Pediatric Disaster Catherine J. Goodhue, Nancy Blake, 2020-05-13 This textbook describes what nurses need to know about pediatric disaster nursing including public policy and addresses preparedness for all types of disasters natural and man made and strategies for hospital school and community preparedness The book opens with a brief history of disaster nursing and explains the key differences between pediatric and adult disaster nursing Recent years have been marked by numerous man made and natural disasters which have led nurses to seek new resources to be better prepared in their role as nurses for all types of disasters Responding to this lack of resources the book focuses on the unique needs of babies and children It is the first and only textbook on pediatric disaster preparedness to include both the physical and psychological effects of disaster Key aspects covered include the psychosocial differences in and how to approach children family reunification medications supplies and equipment and decontamination Given its breadth of coverage the book is well suited as a textbook for nursing classes while also offering a valuable resource for nurses working in the field

Economic Regulation of Airports Di Mei, 2025-11-14 This book explores airport charges regulation presenting a fresh perspective on a crucial yet marginalized subject Providing a clear pathway for regulation of the economic aspects of airports specifically charges the book employs an adaptable approach grounded in private law principles Challenging the conventional command and control model of traditional regulation that once governed airports the book contends that an agile private law approach offers a more responsive and efficient means of overseeing airport charges in the face of increasing complexity within the industry Within this overarching approach two key instruments emerge First the book demonstrates the effectiveness of contracts as a powerful tool for integrating regulations on airport charges Second the cultivation of robust corporate governance is posited as a mechanism that naturally instigates effective regulation Through illuminating the efficacy of a private law approach the book demonstrates how this innovative approach not only works as a regulatory mechanism for airport charges but can also be applied within the broader spectrum of infrastructure regulation The book will be of interest to researchers in the field of air law contract law corporate law competition law and aviation business and management employing case studies to illustrate its points
