society is steadily moving out of a violent and patriarchal past to a more equitable and peaceful future and it reexamines both the archaeological work of Marjia Gimbutas and recent research into the prehistories of Africa Asia the Americas and Australia and Oceania

The Pottery from Dhaskalio Panagiōta I. Sōtērakopoulou,Colin Renfrew,2016 This volume treats in detail the pottery from the settlement on the islet of Dhaskalio whose excavation is described in Volume I of the series Much of the importance of this material lies in the undisturbed stratigraphy of the settlement a fact that allowed for the recognition of three successive phases of occupation of the site with considerable ceramic continuity between them as well as for safe inferences about its chronology with wider implications for the later early bronze age of the Cyclades Other important aspects of this pottery are its considerable regionalism and the fact that it is almost in its entirety imported The study of the pottery and other finds from the site suggest that the settlement at Dhaskalio may have operated primarily as a place for periodic rather than permanent habitation and that its function was most probably connected with the rituals practised at the opposite Special Deposits at Kavos The character of Deposits at Kavos seem to havw declined and the site may increasingly have grown to be a centre of commercial exchange with other islands and areas

Commodification Wim M. J. van Binsbergen,Peter Geschiere,2005 The empirically rich and analytically provocative contributions to this volume focus on Africa and on the process through which commodities come into being Commodification is shown to be a powerful tool towards understanding the modern world especially South economies and South North interactions today It greatly illuminates the three central concepts things agency and identities and thus is conducive to the much needed dialogue between anthropology and economics In the book some of the original contributors of A Appadurai s edited collection from 1986 The Social Life of Things Commodities in Cultural Perspective meet with today s prominent names in the field Jean John Comaroff Paul Jennifer Alexander R Dilley M Rowlands and award winning N Rose Hunt and with scholars of the next
