Teaching at the Crossroads Laurie Grobman,2001

Literary Nonfiction Literary Criticism and History Women s Studies We can fight back and counter the multi directional attacks on multicultural education in literary studies by creating responsible sound and cohesive pedagogy Controversies come with the academic territory but if we allow the conflicts to overwhelm the objectives of our teaching we pave the way for multiculturalism to be merely a passing fad rather than a permanent foundation for liberal education We need to get beyond internal us versus them rhetorics of hate to have any hope for our students to get beyond these mentalities in the real world beyond our classrooms

TEACHING AT THE CROSSROADS This book offers college and high school teachers a useful set of strategies for teaching literature by women of color Providing a comprehensive framework that connects criticism to pedagogy author Laurie Grobman provides a much needed practical guide for teachers who want to introduce their students to multiple literary traditions in a culturally sensitive and theoretically informed manner Highly accessible and designed for practical use

TEACHING AT THE CROSSROADS is an ideal book for teachers of American Literature Women s Literature Multicultural Literature and World Literature It is also ideal for English education courses that include training for diverse literatures by women Includes sample class plans and discussion questions
