Everyman's Constitution Howard Jay Graham, 2013-05-31 In 1938 Howard Jay Graham a deaf law librarian successfully argued that the authors of the Fourteenth Amendment ratified after the American Civil War to establish equal protection under the law for all American citizens regardless of race were motivated by abolitionist fervor debunking the notion of a corporate conspiracy at the heart of the amendment's wording For over half a century the amendment had been used to endow corporations with rights as individuals and thus protect them from state legislation By 1968 when Everyman's Constitution was first published the Fourteenth Amendment had become a tool for the incorporation of the Bill of Rights to apply to all American citizens The essays in this reprinted edition are still relevant as the nation continues to interpret our framing legislation in light of the concerns of today and to balance citizens rights against those of corporations Howard Jay Graham was a law librarian brought in by the NAACP's legal team to write a brief on the Fourteenth Amendment for the Supreme Court case Brown v Board of Education Though the Supreme Court justices ruled in favor of the NAACP based on the sociological rather than historical evidence it provided Graham's work published in various law journals over several decades contributed greatly to the ongoing interpretation of the Fourteenth Amendment

Wortham,1980 Why Men Buy Sex Philip Birch,2015-02-20 Sex work has been a contentious issue in a variety of ways throughout history socially morally ethically religiously and politically Traditionally noted as one of the oldest professions in the world sex work has commonly been demonised and is often viewed as a social disgrace While sex work involves both providers of sexual services most commonly women and purchasers of sexual services most commonly men providers have attracted the most social commentary Recent research shows that a limited number of studies have been conducted since 1990 concerning men who procure sexual services This book aims to help reset this balance In this book Philip Birch examines the procurement of female sexual services with a focus on the personal and social aspects of men who procure such exchanges and offers insight into the demographics amongst men who purchase sexual services alongside an analysis of the reasons why they purchase sex This book brings together existing literature with analyses of new data to develop a multi factor model reflecting men s procurement of sexual services and demonstrates the complexities surrounding the procuration of these sexual services in exchange for money The book considers what contribution the understanding of the personal and social aspects of men who procure sexual services has on re theorising the purchasing of sex in the 21st Century and will be of interest to academics and students involved in the study of criminology criminal justice social policy law sociology Legitimacy of Poetic Reason O. Bradley Bassler,2022-09-26 Many philosophical accounts of reason are geared toward providing rational justifications ex post facto rather than accounting for the role reason plays in actu in the process of creative work Moreover when in actu accounts of reason are given they are usually too narrow to describe the sort of high level creative work that is involved in the composition of poetry or the creation of a scientific theory This book suggests that the rudiments of a broader account are found in various German Idealist figures most notably the philosopher novelist critic Friedrich Schlegel and the philosophical poet and novelist Friedrich H Iderlin However German Idealism generally is subject to Hans Blumenberg s secularization critique which provides a strong prima facie argument that the accounts of poetic reason suggested by Schlegel and H Iderlin are indefensible This book argues that confronting Blumenberg s secularization critique and his associated legitimation of modernity with a romantic conception of poetic reason requires revisions on both sides and that the work of Lacan is especially well suited to provide the conditions upon which a legitimation of poetic reason can be provided The English Catalogue of Books Sampson Low,1911 Volumes for 1898 1968 include a directory of
