Eu Foreign Policy Transitional Justice And Mediation:

EU Foreign Policy, Transitional Justice and Mediation Laura Davis, 2014-07-11 This book analyses how the European Union translates its principles of peace and justice into policy and puts them into practice particularly in societies in or emerging from violent conflict The European Union treaty states that in its relations with the wider world the EU is to promote peace security the protection of human rights and the strict observance and the development of international law The EU is active in peace processes around the world yet its role in international peace mediation is largely ignored This book offers the first scholarly analysis of how the EU engages in peace processes and justice for human rights violations focussing on the point where mediation and transitional justice intersect Drawing on extensive fieldwork the book includes case studies of how the EU sought to promote peace and justice in the Democratic Republic of Congo DRC how it supports international justice through the International Criminal Court and a model of the EU as a mediator These provide an evidence base for policy makers and practitioners as well as strong empirical contributions to theory The book addresses whether and how the EU pursues its principles of both peace and justice in conflict zones where in practice these principles may be in conflict and the implications of these findings for understanding EU foreign policy and the EU as a security actor This book will be of much interest to students of EU foreign policy transitional justice peace and conflict studies and security studies Annual Report ... on the European Union's Development and External Assistance Policies and Their Implementation in ..., 2013

From Early Warning to Early Action? European Commission. DG External Relations, 2008 Today s world is characterised by more conflict than ever before last year 118 violent conflicts wreaked destruction around the globe This book mainly designed for NGOs politicians social workers citizens and students leads the discussion on how the European Union can use its resources to respond more effectively to the contemporary challenges in civilian crisis response Divided into six sections the book is a collection of texts written by experts from European Union institutions European think tanks and universities as well as high ranking officials from the European Union military staff and experts from non governmental organisations The texts are accompanied by beautiful pictures by professional photojournalists Over the last two years the European Union has taken a range of steps to enhance the way it deals with international crises and natural disasters EU financial resources for crisis response have increased more than four fold since 2006 These resources are being used in closer cooperation and partnership with European Union Member States NGOs and the think tank community in Europe and beyond New ways of acting faster on the basis of early warning have been drawn up This new book is a collection of writing illustrating the progress made in these areas against the background of discussion and input from policy experts and practitioners in the field It builds on the range of views aired at the Commission s conference From Early Warning to Early action held in November 2007 involving more than 900 diplomats officers practitioners scholars and advocates representing all facets of the network of European crisis responders The book one of the few comprehensive
