

EVANGELISM AS A PROCESS—PART I

Session #7

Note to Leader: This outline contains the major points to be covered in this session. Use the outline to determine a lecture, or design a discussion, or some other type of interactive lesson.

Goal: Give a disciple an understanding the necessity of seeing evangelism as a process.

I. Introduction: Past tendencies in evangelism

- A. Much evangelism has been event-oriented.
  - 1. This evangelism is event-based with emotional pressure for a decision.
  - 2. This method is not as effective now as it once was because there is a greater ideological distance between Christians and non-Christians.
- B. Much evangelism leading to decision oriented.
  - 1. There is aggressive sharing of the gospel with pressure to make a decision now, with no ongoing contact.
  - 2. We call it “evangelism party evangelism” – send out a group of evangelists, share the Gospel to a few people, buy a few used candy bowls to the table house of the church.
  - 3. But there is a problem: What if the people are not ready to respond to the Gospel? The evangelist believes has found the gospel several times before responding.

II. Factors that affect how we do evangelism

- A. There have been changes in the values and presuppositions in Western culture.
  - 1. Examples
    - a. People no longer assume that there is a God or that the Christian view of God is correct.
    - b. Christian values are attacked rather than reinforced by society (e.g. taking “under God” out of the pledge of allegiance).
    - c. The present younger generation is looking for individuality and provision for people.
  - 2. Because of these changes, our culture does not prepare the way for our evangelism as it once did. Now, people are generally further away from Christ than in the past and more skeptical about Christianity.
