

I kill humans every night. I seduce them, draw them close to me...

...with an insatiable hunger, a constant never-ending search for something...

...something, I don't know what it is...

And I care nothing about them — where they came from...

...where they would go — if I did not meet them on the way.

But I dislike him!

I want him dead and will have him dead.

I shall enjoy it.

This was the heart of it, to unmake my maker...
