Crime-Terror Nexus in South Asia Ryan Clarke, 2011-04-12 This book examines the crime terror nexus in South Asia focusing in particular on the activities of non state actors that operate out of Pakistan and challenges the conventional wisdom that the Pakistan Taleban TTP and Al Qaeda are Pakistan s most serious security threats Much research has focused on the policies of India and Pakistan towards Kashmir But surprisingly little attention has been paid to several notable Pakistan based non state actors who are increasingly operating on their own and who have the potential to greatly inhibit if not derail the peace process there These groups blur the line between terrorism and organized crime with serious implications for policy in the region India and Pakistan can engage in confidence building measures but if criminal actors such as Lashkar i Taiba LeT and D Company cannot effectively be controlled a lack of trust between both sides will remain Although the role of regular military forces is not to be discounted many of the non state actors in Indian Held Kashmir such as LeT are not confined by the same restraints as state forces thus allowing them engage in more violent actions without fear of reprisal In order for lawmakers security personnel and others to develop sound comprehensive policies these forces and their potential to undermine political initiatives must be fully appreciated This book explores the dynamics of the relationship between Pakistan D Company and LeT and how it affects strategic thought decision making and security interests in the region and explains the triangular relationships between states terrorist groups and organized criminal syndicates in general and in India and Pakistan in particular This book will of much interest to students of South Asian politics terrorism organised crime war and conflict studies and Security Studies in general International Journal of Comparative and Applied Criminal Justice ,2016 Social Sciences Research Journal ,2013 Resource Material Series ,1999 Cross-Border Law Enforcement Saskia Hufnagel, Clive Harfield, Simon Bronitt, 2012-04-27 This innovative volume explores issues of law enforcement cooperation across borders from a variety of disciplinary perspectives In doing so it adopts a comparative framework hitherto unexplored namely the EU and the Australasian Asia Pacific region whose relative geopolitical remoteness from each other decreases with every incremental increase in globalisation The borders under examination include both macro level cooperation between nation states as well as micro level cooperation between different Executive agencies within a nation state In terms of disciplinary borders the contributions demonstrate the breadth of academic insight that can be brought to bear on this topic The volume contributes to the wider context for evidence based policy making and knowledge based policing by bringing together leading academics public policy makers legal practitioners and law enforcement officials from Europe Australia and the Asian Pacific region to shed new light on the pressing problems impeding cross border policing and law enforcement globally and regionally Problems common to all jurisdictions are discussed and innovative best practice solutions and models are considered The book is structured in four parts Police cooperation in the EU in Australia in the Asia Pacific Region and finally it considers issues of jurisdiction and due process human rights issues with a focus on regional cooperation strategies for countering human trafficking organised crime and
