

Paired Passages

Linking Fact to Fiction

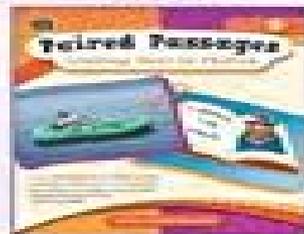

Help students develop and practice the skills they need to compare and contrast fiction and nonfiction passages. After each of the 25 pairs of passages, students are asked both multiple-choice and open-ended questions.

The book provides the following:

- Exercises that build reading comprehension.
- Exercises that develop the skills needed to break down and analyze story elements.
- Exercises that provide practice in keeping sequence and details from two sources separate.
- Practice with multiple-choice questions.
- Practice with written-response questions on individual passage themes.
- Practice with written-response questions that utilize information from two contrasting passages.
