The Middle of Somewhere Sara L. Hartman,Bob Klein,2023-07-11 Highlights innovative partnership practices that help create educational opportunities for students in rural schools across the United States As editors Sara L Hartman and Bob Klein acknowledge rural places have long experienced systemic inequities that decrease rural students access to education yet many rural schools and communities have found creative means to make up for the dearth of outside resources The Middle of Somewhere brings to light a wide variety of partnerships that have been forged between K 12 schools communities and postsecondary institutions to improve educational access The book showcases collaborations that address three different areas of need partnerships that prepare and support teacher candidates and educators who work in rural areas partnerships that extend the work of rural education networks and partnerships that promote equity justice and inclusion within rural populations Using case studies of rural educational partnerships from communities across the United States the book s contributors share their experiences of how strong partnerships have formed both organically and through thoughtful and intentional planning and they recommend supportive strategies for their development and sustainment The contributors also explore the many ways in which university school community partnerships incubate solutions to challenges common to rural education systems such as access to STEM education and higher education The programs featured here may serve as replicable models for practitioners researchers and policy makers who want to enrich the experiences of children in their schools and communities

Leave Love with Me William Lawton,2023-09-19 Desire for beauty is at the heart of human existence Some find this meaning out of their religious or spiritual perspective Some find it at the edge of their traditions And others find it outside any recognizable tradition This book speaks especially to the second and third groups of people Desire releases us to explore difference and to honor alternatives Desire shapes our lives in unique ways It centers our energies for personal and relational change where difference can be debated and variety permitted We might transcend circumstances that limit us Desire is more than meaningfulness it is captivation of mind and spirit to life s possibility In my discovery desire is an abandonment to beauty
