

The 6 Stages of Career Development

Stage 1: Follower

- For most, this begins after they graduate from college
- You are not fully aware of your skill sets and what you have to offer to your employer

Stage 2: Collaborator

- You learn how to cooperate well with others
- You support workplace efficiency and help your team grow and achieve goals

Stage 3: Instructor

- You tap into your people skills when giving instructions to your team
- You know what needs to be done, instead of always being the one to do it

Stage 4: Manager

- You lead larger teams with bigger goals and bigger objectives
- You motivate direct reports by giving them the means to pursue and achieve goals

Stage 5: Influencer

- You go from managing a team to influencing people
- You may be influencing those in other departments or those who are at or above your level

Stage 6: Leader

- You spend much of your time empowering and inspiring others
- Instead of telling people what to do, you tell them what to think about
