

HOW TO WRITE A Journalistic Chronicle

Entrance

The journalistic chronicle begins with an attractive hook to grab readers' attention without overwhelming them with too much information upfront.

Story chronological

The narration of the body of the note must contain the dramatization and climax of the chronicle, with increasing and decreasing actions to be able to handle the tension of the story.

Data

The text must offer basic information that completes the necessary points to understand and answer the traditional questions (what, who/is, where, when, why).

Final

The closing can include a serif that goes back to the hook that started the text.

Different Dispatches David T. Humphries,2006-03-09 In Different Dispatches David Humphries brings together in a new way a diverse group of well known American writers of the inter war period including Willa Cather Sherwood Anderson Ernest Hemmingway Zora Neale Hurston James Agee and Robert Penn Warren He demonstrates how these writers engage journalism in creating innovative texts that address mass culture as well as underlying cultural conditions The book will be of interest to readers approaching these well known authors for the first time or for scholars grappling with larger issues of cultural production and reception

The Undeclared War between Journalism and Fiction D. Underwood,2013-09-25 In this volume Doug Underwood asks whether much of what is now called literary journalism is in fact literary and whether it should rank with the great novels by such journalist literary figures as Twain Cather and Hemingway who believed that fiction was the better place for a realistic writer to express the important truths of life

Israeli Speculative Fiction Elana Gomel,Vered Weiss,2026-03-03 This collection of essays investigates both the elements that locate Israeli speculative fiction in relation to world speculative literature and the features that render it unique For decades Israeli literary culture seemed to focus almost entirely on realistic genres however a closer examination reveals not only the prevalence of speculative literature in the country but also its significance in shaping both enduring and emerging ideas about Israeli identities Recognizing the significance of speculative literature in the reconfiguration of modern Israeli identities will expand and deepen conversations about the wider Israeli culture The book contains essays about temporality and spatiality and explorations of work by seminal authors such as Etgar Keret and Orly Castel Bloom as well as Assaf Gavron Shimon Adaf Ishay Sarid and Lavie Tidhar It also includes unique perspectives on Palestinian Israeli speculative fiction and Israeli comics This volume invites readers to enter conversations about Israeli culture that go beyond discourses about what is real and encounter instead discussions about how Israelis use speculative fiction to imagine what might be

Representations of Lethal Gender-Based Violence in Italy Between Journalism and Literature Nicoletta Mandolini,2021-08-15 This book discusses femicide in Italy and the cultural conversations that have resulted from feminist discourse on lethal violence against women entering the mainstream by analyzing journalistic inquiries and literary works produced after 2012 In a global and national context where activism s goals are mainly discursive this study deepens our understanding of the role played by written narratives in the critique of a public interest matter such as gender based violence The first part of the book is dedicated to the analysis of three journalistic inquiries published in book format that focus on one or more cases of femicide that happened on the Italian peninsula The second section draws on the concept of feminist rewriting to propose the analysis of a heterogeneous body of literary texts that explore some of the most controversial and notorious femicide cases covered by previous journalistic historical or mythical narratives before demonstrating the close connection between theoretical and narrative discourse within the analyzed texts This is a fascinating case study contributing to global understandings of gender based violence which will be important for researchers in gender studies sociology and media studies

EBOOK: Keywords In News And Journalism Studies Barbie Zelizer, Stuart Allan, 2010-05-16 The authors are familiar with the emerging jargon of media convergence and they define large parts of it well They have also laboured impressively to gather and define useful examples of journalese This book is a labour of love that reflects immense care and learning It makes a helpful contribution to a fledgling field of academia and to uniting the cultures of news and journalism studies Tim Luckhurst University of Kent UK This comprehensive glossary offers clear and insightful definitions of the most significant keywords in news and journalism studies Ranging from above the fold to zinger and with over 400 terms in between it covers words associated with newspapers radio and television news magazines photojournalism and internet reporting Other examples include agenda setting libel news values objectivity scoop and tabloidization Written by two of the field's leading scholars it offers an informed perspective on the key terms It considers a range of genres including business crime environmental fashion lifestyle investigative science sports and war journalism as well as looking at new alternatives such as Wikinews and Twitter This lively and engaging treatment will provide students researchers and journalists with a solid grounding in the fast moving vocabulary of news and journalism studies
