Listener and BBC Television Review, 1973 Approaches to Teaching Shakespeare's English History Plays Laurie Ellinghausen, 2017-06-01 Offers pedagogical techniques for teaching Shakespeare's English history plays in the college classroom including considerations of historiography digital archives political rhetoric gender ecocriticism masculinity maps authority and legitimacy performance and composition Includes information on editions reference works biographies and online resources Gives syllabus suggestions for undergraduate and graduate courses Teaching Adaptations D. Cartmell, I. Whelehan, 2014-11-21 Teaching Adaptations addresses the challenges and appeal of teaching popular fiction and culture video games and new media content which serve to enrich the curriculum as well as exploit the changing methods by which English students read and consume literary and screen texts The Search for Beulah Land Gwyn A. Williams, 2022-05-14 This book first published in 1980 describes and analyses the revolutionary years that saw the birth of the first modern Welsh nation and the American Republic In the last days of the eighteenth century as the Atlantic world responded to the challenge of the American and French revolutions the novel industrial capitalism of England planted itself in the Welsh south and east and disrupted traditional rural community to west and north Wales a marginal and poverty stricken country was propelled into modernisation cultural revival a breach with the Establishment a millenarian mitigation and its first politics The Listener and BBC Television Review, 1964 Freeze Frame Sue Macy, 2006 Highlights in the history of the Winter Olympics from their inception in 1924 to today including profiles of the Olympic athletes and information on the lesser known winter sports Also includes an Olympic almanac with information about each Olympiad Vicious Circuits Joseph Jonghyun Jeon, 2019-03-12 In December of 1997 the International Monetary Fund announced the largest bailout package in its history aimed at stabilizing the South Korean economy in response to a credit and currency crisis of the same year Vicious Circuits examines what it terms Korea's IMF Cinema the decade of cinema following that crisis in order to think through the transformations of global political economy at the end of the American century It argues that one of the most dominant traits of the cinema that emerged after the worst economic crisis in the history of South Korea was its preoccupation with economic phenomena As the quintessentially corporate art form made as much in the boardroom as in the studio film in this context became an ideal site for thinking through the global political economy in the transitional moment of American decline and Chinese ascension With an explicit focus of state economic policy IMF cinema did not just depict the economy it also was this economy's material embodiment That is it both represented economic developments and was itself an important sector in which the same pressures and changes affecting the economy at large were at work Joseph Jonghyun Jeon's window on Korea provides a peripheral but crucial perspective on the operations of late US hegemony and the contradictions that ultimately corrode it International Who's Who of Authors and Writers 2004 Europa Publications, 2003 Accurate and reliable biographical information essential to anyone interested in the world of literature The International Who's Who of Authors and Writers offers invaluable information on the personalities and organizations of the literary world including many up and coming writers as well as established names. With over 8 000 entries this updated edition features Concise biographical information on novelists authors playwrights columnists journalists editors and critics.
